LONDON, July 6.—Prime Minister Churchill disclosed today that the Germans were bombarding London with robot bombs at the rate of 100 to 150 a day, and in the first three weeks of their assault had killed 2,752 persons, a high proportion of them in the British capital.

Some 8,000 other persons have been hospitalized for injuries, but a large proportion of them were discharged after only a few days, Churchill told Commons in his long-awaited statement on the pilotless plane attacks.

Bank Control By Government Board Is Urged

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—George Bickerton of Saskatoon, past president of the United Farmers of Canada, Saskatchewan section, said today before the Commons banking committee that the banking and credit system of Canada should be under government control with an independent commission, headed by a superior court judge, in direct charge.

He set forth his views under questioning by J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit house leader, who suggested that lower interest rates, longer loan terms and other objectives of western farmers might be obtained through adjustments to the existing banking system rather than through government control.

BANK ACT DEFIED
Mr. Blackmore said the United Farmers' brief presented yesterday said operators of the present banking and credit system were "not fit and proper persons" for this task. He wondered if their integrity was questioned.

Mr. Bickerton said the enterprises were operated with integrity within the policy set down for them. But, in past years, too high rates of interest had been charged in defiance of the bank act.

C.C.F. to Abandon 'Governing' Groups

REGINA, July 6.—(CP)—A number of boards and commissions set up by the present provincial administration in Saskatchewan will be abolished by the C.C.F. government, "to restore as quickly as possible ministerial responsibility to the members of the cabinet," Premier-elect T. C. Douglas said Wednesday at the conclusion of a caucus of the new C.C.F. cabinet.

"Two benefits will result from the abandoning of many of the present boards and commissions. We will restore responsible government in Saskatchewan and make the cabinet ministers responsible for the actions of their departments. Secondly it will effect considerable savings in the operation of the government," he said.

All members of the new cabinet attended the "shadow cabinet meeting" Wednesday. Initial plans for re-organizing the government administration were laid and the new government studied the set up of the present administration.

Decisions by boards and commissions were not essential and those that should be retained.

Youth Is Killed in Tractor Accident

Harold Arthur Berge, 16-year-old son of K. H. Berge, 9606 99A street, who fell from the hood of the tractor upon which he was riding at the farm of Walter Hanson, Battle Bend district, about 11 p.m. Wednesday, was killed when one of the wheels of the machine passed over his body, R.C.M.P. headquarters in Edmonton reported Thursday.

The youth, whose mother died recently, was working on the Hanson farm, located south of Hardisty. Medical aid was immediately summoned but the youth was pronounced dead upon the arrival of a doctor. The body was removed to Hardisty.

K. H. Berge, father of the youth, is said to be working at Dawson Creek at the present time and will be notified of the fatality. Two other children in the Berge family, a son and a daughter, reside in the city.

Dominion, U.S. Travel Rulings Again Relaxed

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(AP)—Canada and the United States jointly announced today new relaxation of restrictions on travel across the border.

"Hereafter," the announcement said, "no passport, visa or border-crossing card will be necessary for entry into the United States" by Canadians or British subjects who come into this country for 29 days or less on either business or pleasure.

It is also provided under newly relaxed rules that Canadian residents may now exchange a maximum of $150 a year for United States money for pleasure travel in this country.

At the same time it was stated that the Canadian "labor exit permit," designed to prevent the departure from Canada of persons subject to military call, still is required.

AIR RAID DEATHS
From the beginning of the war to last June 1, air raid deaths in London totalled 51,778, while another 62,868 persons were injured.

Churchill said he could give no guarantee for the future, but assured the house that the government was doing "everything in human power and never have failed yet."

"That's the only promise I can make yet," he said. "I must, however, make it perfectly plain and I do not want there to be any mis-

Party Program Reconstruction Needs Outlined By C.C.F. Chief

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—In the second national broadcast under the new CBC policy of granting free time to political groups, M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said last night that social and economic reconstruction in the post-war could be attained through political and economic organizations controlled and financed by the people.

In his speech he outlined his party's program and declared the C.C.F. victory in Saskatchewan was an example of voters co-operating intelligently to bring about desired policies.

"It was a demonstration of democratic endeavor which we hope to see paralleled in every province of Canada and throughout the nation itself," said Mr. Coldwell.

The first free time allotment went to government speakers in a broadcast from Winnipeg May 31 during a convention of the Young Liberals' Association. A free time allotment on June 21 for the Pro-

Record Hail Storm Hits Lloydminster

LLOYDMINSTER, July 6.—Hail covered Lloydminster like a winter snow storm at a late hour yesterday afternoon following the worst storm in the border area since 1911. Coming from the northwest the storm which cut a swath about five miles wide continued in a south easterly direction. Reports from the rural area to hand indicate a loss of from 50 to 90 per cent.

325 Canadian Airmen Return

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—More than 325 airmen—the largest group ever to be repatriated to Canada—arrived in Ottawa today from the battle fronts of Europe, the Middle East and India.

A large crowd cheered them into the Union station concourse, where a band serenaded them. Just before the air force train arrived a long army train, bearing soldiers from Britain and Italy, discharged a dozen Ottawa district men and continued on to Western Canada. They were played into the station by a pipe band.

The airmen were fed ice cream and coffee by pretty Red Cross volunteer workers, welcomed by service and civic officials and then taken in buses to the repatriation depot at nearby Rockcliffe, from where they will start 30-day leaves before being sent to their homes throughout Canada.

The great majority have completed tours of duty and are back to pass on their experience to fledgling airmen in Canadian training schools.

Believe Many Dead In 'Big Top' Blaze

HARTFORD, Conn., July 6.—(AP)—An undetermined number of persons, among them three performers, were reported to have perished today as fire enveloped the big tent of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus.

A number of persons were believed to have died in the flames before it collapsed at 2:45 p.m. in the fiery ruins. The fire broke out just after the first act of the afternoon performance.

To Probe Death Ex-City Woman

LONDON, Ont., July 6.—(CP)—Crown Attorney C. C. Savage last night ordered a post mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Ruby Alberta Valentine, 51, who died yesterday in hospital 13 days after she had been found lying unconscious on a couch in her home.

One of Canada's few woman barbers, Mrs. Valentine for many years operated a shop in Edmonton.

Presentation Made to Noted Airman

In a ceremony Wednesday night Sqdn.-Ldr. D. I. Crossley, left, chief supervisory officer of No. 2 Air Observer School, made a presentation to Capt. W. R. "Wop" May, O.B.E., D.F.C., manager of the school which will close down the middle of this month, on behalf of members of the mess which includes officers of the Northwest Air Command. He said the efficient manner in which the school had been run under Capt. May's supervision represented a contribution to the war effort comparable to his record in the last war when he flew in combat.

MOSCOW, July 6.—The Germans rushed fresh reserves, including air-borne division, into battle on the approaches to Lithuania today, but the onrushing Soviets hurled them aside and drove to within a little more than 45 miles of the border and 42 miles of the stronghold of Wilno.

The fall of the encircled stronghold at Molodechno, 42 miles northwest of Minsk and 63 miles southeast of Wilno, yesterday opened the floodgates to cavalry, tank and mobile infantry of Marshal Ivan D. Chernenkovsky's Third White Russian army and they surged westward with increasing momentum.

An outflanking column north of Molodechno set the pace for the assault on Lithuania by smashing through reinforced German lines along the Wilja river, capturing the highway and railway centre of Smorgon, 18 miles northwest of Molodechno, and pressing on to within 42 miles of Wilno.

The advance carried the 3rd army to within 45 miles of the west Prussian border as established by Russia and Germany respectively following the partition of Poland in 1939.

North of Wilno, Gen. Ivan C. Bagration's 1st Baltic army ran into stiffened enemy resistance on he approaches to Daugavpils (Dvinsk) in southeastern Latvia, but to the south, the 1st White Russian army of Marshal K. Rokossovsky pushed to within 16 miles east of the competition stronghold of Baranovics.

Ernest von Hammer, German military commentator, said, "the Soviet assault army attacking the outer defences of Daugavpils was 'stronger than all the other armies on the central front.'"

Luger Luggin' Ludwig Better Lay 'It' Down, Sing Canadian Troops

By WILLIAM STEWART
WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES IN FRANCE, July 6.—(CP)—"Luger Luggin' Ludwig" sung to the words of "Pistol Packin' Mama" is quickly becoming the song of the Canadian lines in Normandy. Since it originated in the camp of a Canadian Scottish regiment its words have been brushed up a bit, and it has appeared in a brigade situation report under the heading "Special Items."

"Lay that Luger down, kid, lay that Luger down. Luger Luggin' Ludwig, lay that Luger down." "Slugging Gerry left and right, having lots of fun, 'til one night we caught him right, now he's on the run." "We licked you on the beaches, chased you through the towns, you're not safe if we reach you, so lay that Luger down." "We'll push you across the river and through the fields of grain, you'll wish you'd never heard of the Normandy campaign." "We'll blast you in the daytime and mussy you up at night, when we get through with you, kid, you'll be an awful sight." "Lay that Luger down, kid, you haven't got a chance, Luger Luggin' Ludwig you're all washed up in France."

LONDON, July 6.—Adolf Hitler announced tonight that he had removed Marshal Karl Von Rundstedt from the supreme command of the breached Atlantic wall defences, behind which Allied troops were fighting for a break-through in the developing battle of Normandy.

Co-incident with Berlin's disclosure that Hitler had turned over the supreme command in the west to Marshal Guenther Von Kluge, who once commanded an army on the Russian front, Normandy dispatches said that Canadian troops had broken all enemy attempts to dislodge them from their Carpiquet positions, three miles west of Caen, and that United Kingdom troops in the southwest had edged forward within a mile and a half of the enemy bastion astride the road to Paris.

Manning Says Refunding Now Not Considered

There is no thought on the part of the Alberta government to refund the public debt of the province in the immediate future, as a pre-election measure, Premier Ernest Manning stated Thursday.

My attention has been drawn to a statement by Elmer E. Roper, M.L.A., C.C.F. Alberta leader, suggesting that the provincial government is rushing into a pre-election refunding scheme.

I am afraid Mr. Roper is suffering from a bad attack of election hysteria. It is hardly a sign of statesmanship for a political leader to base such far-fetched and unwarranted conclusions on an incomplete newspaper report.

A REMINDER
I would remind Mr. Roper that a Social Credit government was fighting for fair and equitable interest rates and a square deal in the field of public finance long before he ever showed any concern for the public welfare along these lines. His suggestion that the government would consider increasing the public debt by $25,000,000 is utterly ridiculous.

The government has and will continue to work toward a full and complete refunding of Alberta's debt on terms that will be fair and equitable to the people of this province as well as the bond holders.

It is absurd to suggest that the government of Alberta would rush into any premature or inequitable refunding scheme on the eve of a provincial election.

After the election we intend to continue our efforts to bring to an early successful conclusion an equitable refunding arrangement towards which considerable progress has already been made.

Fire Threatens Town in Quebec

VAL D'OR, Que., July 6.—All business establishments were closed and normal activities suspended here this afternoon while the entire population dug in to fight the worst emergency in Val D'Or's history—a huge forest fire which threatened to destroy the entire community.

Early this afternoon three-quarters of the city was surrounded by flames beehiving from the wooded outskirts of this city of 6,500 souls, and sweeping relentlessly toward the city limits themselves. The nearest blaze was reported at a distance of 1,000 yards from the nearest dwellings.

The mayor of Val D'Or issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to rush to the aid of firefighters and all business establishments were immediately closed for the emergency.

Authorities here said that unless a sudden change of wind occurs, Val D'Or is doomed.

Rene Morin Quits As CBC Chairman

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—War Services Minister LaFlèche today announced in the Commons the resignation of Rene Morin of Montreal as chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation board of governors and appointment of Howard B. ## Film Company Planning New Theatre Here

Famous Players Corporation of Canada will build a theatre in downtown Edmonton as soon as possible after the cessation of hostilities, Walter P. Wilson, manager of the Capital Theatre, stated Thursday.

Property on which this theatre will be built has been purchased from the Burns Holdings Ltd. The purchase price was not disclosed by Mr. Wilson, but the assessed value of the land and buildings is set at approximately $80,000 by city assessor's department figures.

It is located at 10229-41 Jasper avenue on the south side of the street and is immediately west of the Goertz Studios. Present tenants of the property include Trudy Gay Shop, Mandarin Silk Shop, Western Black, Edmonton Candy Shop and Kerrison and Adams, florists.

While declining to make any statement on the cost of the proposed theatre, Mr. Wilson said that the very latest in theatre construction and facilities would be incorporated in the new building. It is probable that building and furnishing will cost approximately $500,000.

This is the second major theatre building project listed for the post war period as the Odeon Theatres Western Ltd. has acquired property immediately east of the Bank of Montreal on which it is proposed to erect a theatre structure.

C.C.F. to Contest 5 Calgary Seats

CALGARY, July 6.—(CP)—Five C.C.F. candidates will be in the running in Calgary for seats in the provincial legislature. It was decided at a meeting of the local constituency association Wednesday night. Since three candidates were named some months ago, two additional nominations will be required. Date of the nominating meeting has not yet been decided.

Present C.C.F. candidates are Calvin Helmer, R. Alderman and H. A. Wiers.

Other nomination dates announced today were a Social Credit convention at Perryvale on July 13 for Alhambra and at Leduc on July 13 and a C.C.F. nominating meeting at Morinville July 19 to name a candidate for St. Albert.

Hitler Ousts Anti-Invasion Army Leader

obeying them as he would any government of the Reich. He commanded his army groups in the Polish, French and Russian campaigns always with conspicuous success.

Kluge, 52, entered the army as a youth and was a captain in the general staff at the outbreak of the First World War. He served with conspicuous success in that war and was made commander in chief of the 4th Pommeranian Army during the Polish campaign in 1939. He became field marshal general on July 19, 1940.

Thirty days after the Allies stormed the Normandy beaches and drilled into the Atlantic Wall, the Berlin radio broadcast the text of an announcement from Hitler's headquarters which said:

"Instead of General Field Marshal von Rundstedt, who is impeding owing to the state of his health, General Field Marshal von Kluge has taken over the supreme command in the west."

"The fuhrer, in a personal letter, has in cordial terms expressed his thanks to Field Marshal von Rundstedt, who has proved himself in most difficult situation, and is considering his employment for special tasks."

DEFEATS RESPONSIBLE

German military reverses in the west, which observers believed led to the ouster of von Rundstedt, were accentuated by the rise of the French underground. Allied headquarters reported today that French patriots had liberated several sections of their country, overcoming Nazi military resistance.

Supreme headquarters disclosed that Maj. Gen. R. F. L. Keller's 3rd Canadian division were holding the northern hangers of the Carpiquet airfield after fierce German counter-attacks had failed to dent their positions and that advance troops of United Kingdom formations in the Evreux salient, southwest of Caen, had fought forward to within a mile of the outskirts of Caen.

Facing the Canadians, the Germans held the eastern and southern buildings of the airfield at Carpiquet and the field itself had become a no-man's land.

Allied medium and light bombers swarmed in to the support of the Allied armies, striking in large formations at the five main rail lines radiating from the battle zone. They also aimed a pin-point blow at two bridges within the city of Caen.

A dispatch from Ronald Clark, British United Press war correspondent at the front, said 500 to 600 German infantrymen and 40 tanks were holding the Carpiquet airfield and preventing any southward advance by the Canadians from Carpiquet itself.

A number of German tanks carried out probing attacks yesterday, but all were repulsed and 10 enemy panzers were knocked out.

"The two forces are still glowering at each other across the bullet-swept runway," Clark said.

TAKEN BY BRITONS

The sector between Carpiquet and Versm, which lies two miles to the south, which was taken by United Kingdom troops yesterday, was officially described as a "real hot spot."

Official front line observers said the German resistance at Carpiquet airfield had been "exceedingly violent—as fierce as we have ever encountered throughout the war."

While the intense battle continued to sway back and forth without decisive change, they said the Canadians had made no withdrawals since taking up positions about 60 yards from the Carpiquet airfield. The Germans were able to lay down a continuous fire from mortars and machine guns to which the Canadians were keeping up a hot reply "in kind."

MANY NAZI TROOPS

The other British 2nd Army sectors, including the wedge across the Odon river southwest of Caen were relatively quiet, but it was revealed that the density of German troops, especially in armor, in the Tilly-sur-Seulles-Caen region is double that which the enemy is employing against the Americans along the Carentan-La Haye front.

With the British gradually expanding the Odon-Orne salient against the most savage German resistance, Lt. Gen. Sir Christopher Dempsey's troops now stood one and a half miles from the northeast outskirts of Caen and their positions were firmly held. These advanced posts are about three miles from the heart of Caen.

The chief need was said to be a good airfield to enable the full use of Allied air forces in dumping loads of explosives on the German positions.

50,000 PRISONERS
Allied headquarters disclosed that more than 50,000 German prisoners had been captured, including 43,000 by the American 1st Army, and indicated that the total actually may approximate 56,000.

1,000 Planes Blast Europe In Day Attack

LONDON, July 6.—One thousand Flying Fortresses and Liberators scattered a great weight of bombs across northwest Germany, flying bomb platforms in the Pas de Calais, and French air fields today in a full-scale resumption of the aerial offensive against the continent.

The American daylight assault was the second blow in a one-two punch, the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. having sent some 1,000 heavy bombers out on a similar night mission extending from deep in France to the Ruhr valley of Germany.

The first airmen returning from the daytime operations said the bombers ran into intense anti-aircraft fire at some places but saw no German fighters. The pin-point bombing of the widely-scattered targets was carried out under ideal conditions of perfect visibility.

WEATHER CLEARS

Thousands of Allied planes went into action today with a clearing of the weather.

Four-engined Lancaster bombers carried the weight of the night attacks deep into the German defence areas of France, concentrating on the railway and freight yards at Dijon, 175 miles southeast of Paris.

The air ministry described the raid on Dijon as a key junction on the main supply route between Lyon and Paris, as another effort to block German supplies and reinforcements enroute to the battlefields. The attack was carried out without loss.

Police Searching For Lydell Truck

R.C.M.P. authorities in Edmonton appealed Thursday to any person having knowledge of the whereabouts of a motor truck bearing the name of M. Lydell on the side of the cab.

The truck was said to be the property of Merrill Frederick Lydell, Grande Prairie resident, whose body was found on the Canadian Pacific Railway right-of-way early Tuesday morning.

The truck was described by police as being a 1940 two-ton Dodge truck, with dual wheels, iron and canvas body, painted maroon with green fenders.

The vehicle had built-in paint-boxes at the rear of the cab, and was carrying three steel gasoline drums, a number of five-gallon cans and painting equipment. It bore Alberta license No. C.V. 6372.

Any person having knowledge of its whereabouts, is asked to communicate immediately with R.C.M.P. headquarters, Edmonton, telephone No. 24358.

Johnson Paces Canuck Airmen To Seven "Kills"

LONDON, July 6.—(CP)—Canadian Spitfire pilots, their 28-year-old English leader, Wing Cmdr. John E. (Johnny) Johnson again setting the pace, destroyed seven German aircraft over Normandy yesterday, raising to 55 the number of enemy planes knocked down by Canadian fighter wings in one week.

Johnson, leading Allied air ace in the European theatre, shot down two planes yesterday to bring his score to 35. FO. A. T. McRobert of Calgary, also got two "kills" in yesterday's triumphant sweep by the Canadian fliers that followed their spectacular success of July 3 when they got 19 of the 21 German planes destroyed over Normandy that day. The Canadians shot down 13 planes June 30 and 26 on June 28.

ONE PLANE MISSING

One aircraft was missing after the day's operations by the Canadian fighters which culminated an active 24 hours for airmen of the R.C.A.F. Canadian-manned Typhoon and Mustang fighter-bombers attacked bridges over the Orne and broke up a road leading to that river while bomber and coastal command crews also saw action and intruders were out over France.

Johnson's kills yesterday brought his score to three more than the mark set during the Battle of Britain by Group Capt. A. G. (Sailor) Malan, who is not now on active operations, and the late Paddy Finucane, lost in action last year. Unofficially, Finucane was credited with 33 planes.

Lt.-Col. Francis Gabreski, 25-year-old fighter-pilot, yesterday became the leading ace of the United States air force when he shot down a Me109 near Evreux, France, for his 28th victory.

RECORD IN RUSSIA

Air records also were broken in Russia, it was announced yesterday. It was announced in Moscow that the record of 53 German planes shot down by Maj. Alexander Pokryshkin has been equalled by one Soviet flier, Lieut. Nikolai Gulayev and Capt. Gregory Rechkalov.

Top Canadian fighter ace is Flt. Lt. George Beurling of Verdun, Que., with 31 shot down, most of them over Malta. He now is back in Canada.

Noemfoor Island Airstrip Captured

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, July 6.—Allied troops captured a second airstrip on Noemfoor Island off Dutch New Guinea to open two bases today for U.S. within 770 miles of the Philippines.

A communiqué said that American infantrymen, meeting only slight opposition from the Japanese, seized Korosorend airstrip Tuesday, while Royal Australian Air Force crews already were preparing nearby Kamiri airstrip, which fell two hours after the invasion Sunday, for operations.

The R.A.A.F. engineers landed shortly after the first assault troops at Kamiri beachhead and immediately started repairing the airfield, heavily bombed by American planes in pre-invasion attacks, a spokesman disclosed.

Convicted Officer Takes Own Life

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Lt. Beaufort G. Swancutt, sentenced to death by an army court martial for the murder of his sweetheart, another girl, a policeman, and his commanding officer, hanged himself at Letterman Hospital today.

Swancutt, who rose from his table at the Anza Officers' Club and killed his companions four months ago today, was found hanging from a pipe by a bed-sheet by hospital attaches this morning. He was dead. Guards had been assigned to him since he was transferred to the hospital to prevent a suicide attempt.

Swancutt was to have been hanged formally. An army court martial found him guilty of the murders of Dorothy Evelyn Douglas, 19, Leederville, Livermore, 18, Capt. Aubrey G. Sterling, 27, Preston, Minn., and police officer Arthur Simpson, who tried to arrest him.

Mr. Tucker said that a penalty clause in the Bank Act prevented undue interest charges being made. The solution seemed to be an improvement in the condition of farmers as some at present were unable to pay interest of any kind. Their difficulties often were due to low prices and crop failure. There must be a floor on farm prices and continued operation of measures such as the Prairie Farm Assistance Act to assist farmers in bad years.

Answering J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit house leader, Mr. Bickerton said a government-owned banking system would be of definite aid to the farmer as it would give service even at a loss after years. His organization believed banking should be a public utility.

Mr. Tucker said small loans to farmers now could be provided at a rate of six per cent for a short period. If the government saw fit to keep interest rates to the lowest possible level, then the service would be as effective as under a publicly-owned banking system.

The private system might well work harder at the task of making a success than the publicly-owned organization.

6,000 Japs Killed In Drive Against Vital Rail Centre

CHUNGKING, July 6.—(AP)—The Japanese attacking the strategic Hunan province railway town of Hengyang have lost more than 6,000 men killed in 10 days of heavy fighting, the Chinese high command said last night, and the Chinese defenders are striking hard with air and artillery support.

The Chinese command said Chinese troops had routed the Japanese from a town 24 miles south-south-east of Hengyang, where the invaders had cut the Hankow-Canton railway by an outflanking manoeuvre, and that the Chinese had taken "a large number" of enemy strong points on both sides of the Siang river in that area.

Crop Failure Credit Without Cost Is Urged

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—George Bickerton of Saskatoon, Sask., past president of the United Farmers of Canada, Saskatchewan section, said yesterday before the Commons banking committee that the western farmer had an "obsession" that he must pay his debts and was unwilling to take advantage of debt adjustment machinery.

Mr. Bickerton was examined on a brief read by him which asked that the federal government administer the banking and credit system of the Dominion. Bank charters should be extended for only one year. The bank bill being studied by the committee will extend the charters for 10 years.

CROP PROTECTION

Mr. Bickerton said that proposed legislation to assist the granting of credit to farmers should have provision protecting the farmer in the event of crop failure. If he had a 10-year loan and he had a crop failure in that period the loan should be extended to 11 years without additional cost to the borrower.

"The farmers have an obsession that they must pay their debts," he continued. "They sometimes will be evicted from their farms before they will take advantage of debt legislation available to them. Among other things, the farmer does not want his neighbor to know his debt involvements."

DRIVE DOWN COSTS

Walter Tucker (L.-Rosthern) said he suggested that the machinery now existed under the Bank of Canada to drive down the cost of credit to the lowest possible level without the banking system being taken over by an all-powerful state monopoly.

E. E. Perley (P.C.—Qu Appelle) said the banks had not helped the western wheat pools when they encountered difficulty after 1929.

Assistance given by the federal government in the early 30's had "saved" the wheat pools, which now were paying back the loans and were giving co-operative service to western farmers.

Government control of credit services would not eliminate mistakes, but it should make more credit available in times of depression when the need was great.

PENALTY CLAUSE

Mr. Tucker said that a penalty clause in the Bank Act prevented undue interest charges being made. The solution seemed to be an improvement in the condition of farmers as some at present were unable to pay interest of any kind. Their difficulties often were due to low prices and crop failure. There must be a floor on farm prices and continued operation of measures such as the Prairie Farm Assistance Act to assist farmers in bad years.

Answering J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit house leader, Mr. Bickerton said a government-owned banking system would be of definite aid to the farmer as it would give service even at a loss after years. His organization believed banking should be a public utility.

Mr. Tucker said small loans to farmers now could be provided at a rate of six per cent for a short period. If the government saw fit to keep interest rates to the lowest possible level, then the service would be as effective as under a publicly-owned banking system.

The private system might well work harder at the task of making a success than the publicly-owned organization.

6,000 Japs Killed In Drive Against Vital Rail Centre

CHUNGKING, July 6.—(AP)—The Japanese attacking the strategic Hunan province railway town of Hengyang have lost more than 6,000 men killed in 10 days of heavy fighting, the Chinese high command said last night, and the Chinese defenders are striking hard with air and artillery support.

The Chinese command said Chinese troops had routed the Japanese from a town 24 miles south-south-east of Hengyang, where the invaders had cut the Hankow-Canton railway by an outflanking manoeuvre, and that the Chinese had taken "a large number" of enemy strong points on both sides of the Siang river in that area.

Abandon Hope For 64 Miners Trapped by Fire

By FRANK K. NOLL
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press
BELLARE, O., July 6.—Mine officials today gave up as dead 64 miners trapped five miles inside the burning Powhatan coal mine, 14 miles south of here, and began sealing the mine shafts.

Hope for the men was abandoned when the fire at one of the four entrances which had been extinguished, broke out again and forced rescue crews to return to the surface.

Mine officials said it was necessary to seal the entrances to the mine to put out the fire, which began at 12:30 p.m. yesterday, before it destroyed the entire mine. Roy Fox, supervisor of the Powhatan Coal Mining Company, owners of the mine, largest in Ohio, said that "in my opinion the men are dead. How they died we do not know. Their supply of oxygen may have run out, or they may have been trapped by the spreading fire."

Fox said that if the entrances were not sealed now it would be a week or perhaps longer before the mine could be entered.

The number of presumed dead was established by counting the missing head lamps. Fox said. Earlier, the dooped men had answered the tappings of rescue workers on a water pipe running through the mine, and some hope was held then for their rescue.

Gen. Chiang Says Liberation Near

CHUNGKING, July 6.—(AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek, in a message to the Chinese people on the eve of the beginning of China's eighth year of war, acknowledged today that the military situation in his country is grave, but he told patriots in occupied areas that "liberation is close at hand."

Gen. Chiang emphasized that victory for the United Nations is certain, and added: "I believe it won't be long before the war in Europe is brought to a successful conclusion."

The favorable change in Europe, he declared, "is largely attributable to the magnificent and determined Soviet resistance in the past year." He said there was "a good prospect of the early opening of a China-India land route for transporting a large supply of war materials into China."

Quebec Won't Get Speech by Premier

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—Conforming with C.B.C. regulations prohibiting political broadcasting on an election eve and election day, a speech by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, scheduled for Aug. 5, date of the Quebec provincial election—will be broadcast in all provinces but Quebec, it was indicated here today.

Mr. King's speech on the occasion of the celebration of his 25th anniversary as a Liberal leader was to have been picked up at anniversary dinners throughout the country. However, under the C.B.C. regulation, it will be banned from the Quebec air waves. Quebec listeners within range of New Brunswick and Ontario stations will be able to hear the speech.

DANISH YOUTH MAKES ESCAPE IN NAZI PLANE

STOCKHOLM, July 6.—(AP)—Swedish anti-aircraft winged a German plane early today over Helsingborg and when it crashed in the water, out popped a 19-year-old Dane who said he had stolen the plane and started for England.

He gave the name of Hoest and said he worked as a laborer at the Copenhagen airport for two weeks and without German knowledge, gassed up a Heinkel-111 and took off before the Nazis knew what was happening.

Swedish military police fished him from the water unhurt and took him into military custody.

CPA Planes Make Flights On 'Schedule'

Wheeling planes of C. P. Airlines began making scheduled flights into Yellowknife this week. Previously, the area was serviced by float or ski-equipped aircraft except for a period last winter when wheel landings were made on packed snow.

A temporary landing strip has been cleared, which, according to department of transport officials, has been okayed for certain aircraft.

A tremendous increase in mining activity in the Yellowknife and other northern areas where U.S. and Canadian companies are extending their search for gold, has meant a like increase in the shipment of men and supplies. Supplies worth thousands of dollars have been shipped from Edmonton this season or sold at Yellowknife where Edmonton firms have opened branches.

400 MEN WORKING

Development of the Yellowknife field, which has the richest ore value of any in Canada, is solely dependent upon aircraft service. An estimated 400 men are working in Yellowknife where diamond drilling has been undertaken on an extensive scale, and undoubtedly it is only wartime conditions which prevents a huge trek northward. Earlier this year, when diamond drillers and equipment were going into the area, there were as many as 87 persons waiting for accommodation on planes, an indication of what service will be required when the labor situation enables companies to go ahead with full scale operations.

All this development will mean a great deal to Edmonton which will be the hub of aerial operations.

According to L. E. Drummond, secretary-manager of the Alberta and Northwest Chamber of Mines and Resources, thousands upon thousands of claims have been staked in the Yellowknife area alone. "This year we've had as many claims staked as in the boom years of Great Bear Lake in 1933 and 1934," he said.

Drilling activity and reports of rich "finds" has caused a flurry in values of stocks of companies that have been formed to operate in the Yellowknife field or which are carrying on development.

Spectacular rise in some of the stocks has aroused keen interest in Toronto, Montreal, New York and Chicago, according to Edmonton men who are in close touch with the situation.

Heavy Allied Losses Claimed by Nazis

LONDON, July 6.—(CP)—The German broadcast communiqué reported today that Allied attacks north of Caen, where Canadian and British formations are fighting, were not continued "owing to the heavy losses" the Allies suffered.

It said that in the sector extending from southwest of Carentan to the west coast of the Cherbourg peninsula American formations in places broke into the German main line.

The enemy version of the fighting here said German troops launched counter-attacks and fighting is continuing.

Former Insurance Shipping Magnate Passes in London

LONDON, July 6.—(AP)—James Childs Gould, 62, former shipping and insurance magnate, who rose from an ordinary seaman in 1901 to holder of a fortune reputedly worth $100,000,000 in 1918, died July 2.

Mr. Gould, who once worked in New York, was discharged from bankruptcy in 1926. He served as a member of parliament for Central Cardiff from 1918 to 1924. He was a member of Lloyd's.

American Troops In Britain Killed By Robot Attack

LONDON, July 6.—(CP)—A number of American soldiers were killed recently by a flying bomb and a group of W.A.C.s—many of whom had a narrow escape in near-by quarters—said the tragedy struck so quickly they had time to be frightened only when they saw bodies lying in the street.

Some soldiers were killed in a truck waiting to go on rescue work to help victims of other bomb hits.

Name Suggested For Ocean Space

PEARL HARBOR, July 6.—(AP)—Admiral Nimitz has proposed the vast ocean space between the Marianas and the Philippines be called the Philippines Sea. Nimitz said at a press conference that he had submitted the recommendation to Admiral Ernest J. King, commander of the United States Fleet, who had played it before the Geographic Board.

Sabotage Group Said Liquidated

NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—The German communiqué claimed yesterday that a British "sabotage group" of 43 men, had made a parachute landing in "central France" and had been "liquidated." The communiqué, without revealing any details of the alleged operation, merely said that "another 108 armed terrorists were shot." There were no Allied comments on the broadcast claim.

The secret of silk worm culture was brought to Europe about 522 A.D. by two Nestorian monks who smuggled out of China a quantity of silk worms eggs concealed in the hollows of their pilgrim staffs.

Evidence Found

Confirm Japs Are Using Gas Against Hengyang Defenders

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press
14TH U.S. AIR FORCE BASE, China, June 29.—(Delayed)—Capt. Ralph F. Thompson, a U.S. army chemical warfare intelligence officer, confirmed today that the Japanese were using poison gas against the Chinese defenders of Hengyang.

Thompson found evidence of use of both mustard and Lewisite gas, he reported on his return from a special trip to Hengyang to investigate Chinese claims that death-dealing gases were being employed by the Japanese.

Though the Chinese on several previous occasions have made similar claims, this was believed to mark the first time that they have been investigated on the spot and confirmed by an American army officer.

(A Chinese high command communiqué last week charged the Japanese were using poison gas at Hengyang, which since has been encircled. The Japanese claimed to have captured the city.)

The incident recalled President Roosevelt's warning to both Germany and Japan that the United States would retaliate if poison gas were used against her or her Allies. Thompson said he found gas victims with burns and blisters on their legs between their ankles and thighs, left exposed by the short summer uniforms.

card to identify them, it was learned today.

A government spokesman, commenting on an external affairs statement reviewing travel restrictions between the two countries, suggested anyone seeking to cross the border on a registration card alone might do well to carry some other document, such as a personal letter addressed to them, to serve as further identification.

But he expressed belief that in most cases a registration card alone would suffice.

The external affairs statement, amplifying recently announced United States relaxation of restrictions, said Canadians and British subjects now may enter the United States for short visits without a passport, visa or border-crossing card.

The department added that if the emergency which forced the two governments to impose travel barriers becomes "less acute," it is expected that it may be possible to make further modification.

Crop Prospects Continue Good In Most Areas

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—Crop prospects in the prairie provinces were "well maintained on the whole" during the last week, the Dominion bureau of statistics reported yesterday in the sixth of a series of 16 weekly telegraphic reports on crop conditions in the west.

The bureau also issued the third of a series of seven summaries on crop conditions throughout Canada generally, reporting that increased soil moisture and warm weather have "greatly improved" conditions in the maritime provinces.

TOO MUCH RAIN

Too much rain fell in parts of Manitoba and considerable loss occurred to row crops in the Red River Valley, potato crops around Winnipeg, and sugar beet crop areas south of Winnipeg. Cereal crops in Manitoba continued to make good progress and the early-sown grain was headed.

Reports from Saskatchewan indicate crops are two weeks ahead of last year taking the province as a whole but a number of dry spots and conditions of shallow rooting, which call for more rain remain. Moisture is "urgently needed" in the extreme south-western areas and north along the Alberta boundary.

The outlook in Alberta is still good. Some deterioration has taken place in the south-eastern part of the province as the result of heat and drought, while the lack of rainfall is being felt also in the Peace River areas. Flood damage to the extent of 15 per cent is reported from the Edmonton district.

CONDITIONS EXCELLENT

Growing conditions generally in British Columbia have been excellent during the last two weeks and moisture conditions are satisfactory in all but a few areas. A good raspberry crop now is being harvested.

In the maritimes, grains are growing rapidly and hay and pastures have greatly improved. The quality and quantity of the Nova Scotia apple crop is considerably above that of last year.

Recent rains have benefited growing crops in Quebec, although they came too late for the hay crop in many areas. Pastures have also improved materially. Average crops now are in prospect in Quebec.

GOOD IN ONTARIO

Ontario has had fine weather and prospects are generally good to excellent. Having now in full swing and the wheat harvest will be starting shortly. In south-western Ontario, particularly, crop conditions have been excellent and all crops show good promise. Corn, roots, peas, beans and other crops have made good progress and high yields are in prospect.

Record Flight

NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—A world record in passenger transportation in the flight of a transatlantic Clipper from Africa to Natal, Brazil, with 51 passengers and 500 pounds of freight was announced yesterday.

Fifth Recent Kill

Navy Frigate Sends U-Boat to Bottom

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—The Canadian Navy's fifth U-boat kill in recent months was announced last night by Navy Minister Macdonald. The frigate Swansea, which aided in destroying another U-boat recently, brought the latest Nazi undersea raider to the surface with depth charges and then polished it off with gunfire. Swansea was assisted by a Royal Navy sloop, the Pelican. An unnamed number of prisoners were taken.

An interesting sidelight on the sinking was the comment of Surgeon-Lieut. A. K. Mathisen of Vancouver, Swansea's medical officer, who said the prisoners were not up to the medical standards of Germans the Swansea had carried previously.

"Some of them would never have been accepted in the R.C.N.," he said. "They would have been turned down on medical grounds. One had a heart ailment which would have, I think, kept him out of any of our services and the others were suffering minor ailments."

FIRST TO SCOPE

First to scope the recent Canadian successes against U-boats was the frigate Waskesiu. It was followed by a kill in which the corvette Chilwack played the major role. Then the destroyer St. Laurent, assisted by the Swansea, bagged a submarine, and two weeks ago it was announced the frigate Prince Rupert, assisted by United States forces, had chalked up a victory.

Mr. Macdonald pointed out that the first three frigates built in west coast yards—Waskesiu, Prince Rupert and Swansea—now have all scored in brushes against U-boats.

Cmdr. Clarence A. King, D.S.O., D.S.D., a former fruit farmer of Oliver, B.C., and skipper of the Swansea, now has had a hand in disposing of four enemy submarines. In the last war, while serving in the famous "Q-boats," he was credited with one kill and two probabilities.

TEXT-BOOK ACTION

He said his most recent show was a text-book action. The Swansea, detecting the U-boat's presence, dropped a pattern of depth charges, circled and dropped another in company with the Pelican. The U-boat broke surface 2000 yards away and Swansea and Pelican opened fire. Both ships scored hits with their heavy guns and swept the Nazi with light-gun fire.

"The sub never fully surfaced," said Cmdr. King, "there was never any more than its conning tower and a bit of its deck showing. It was badly damaged when it came up."

Twelve minutes after it was blown to the surface the U-boat made its death dive.

SURVIVORS PANICKED

Swansea and Pelican crews reported the survivors panicked with the exception of one officer. Lieut. Ian MacDonald of Victoria told of a Nazi who refused to paddle to a rescue whaler until a rescue crew decided to continue and leave him behind. Then he paddled furiously but when he got on board Leading Seaman Jack Hurtbise of Ottawa saw him pull a revolver. Hurtbise quickly twisted it from his grasp. MacDonald also told of other

Minister Lauds Work of Royal Canadian Navy

ESQUIMALT, B.C., July 6.—

(CP)—Ten thousand Canadian sailors and 100 Canadian ships took part in the invasion of France. Navy Minister Angus Macdonald told a graduation class of 46 cadets from the Royal Canadian Naval College at Royal Roads near here yesterday.

The class was the first to complete the full two-year course for officers since the college opened in October, 1942.

The Royal Canadian Navy was doing "great and spectacular work," the minister said, pointing out that the maintenance of Allied supply lines to Britain had made the invasion of the continent possible.

WAR NOT OVER

"The Atlantic campaign is over, but the war is not over," he said.

The R.C.N. would play its part in the war against Japan when the power of Fascist Europe was wiped out, he said. He hoped that after the war a "proper and adequate force" of naval strength would be maintained for defence.

"I believe that just so long as merchant ships ply the seas just so long will we need to protect them," he said. "And this should not be forgotten after this war when the Axis is finished. I hope that the people of Canada will remember the spectacular work of the navy, the army and the air force and will insist that all three be continued after the war."

Capt. J. M. Grant, commanding officer of the college, read to the class a message sent by Admiral of the Fleet Sir Andrew Cunningham, first sea lord, for publication in the college magazine.

"This war has shown that national security can only be assured by each member of the British Commonwealth of Nations keeping its defence services at the peak of efficiency," he quoted the admiral as writing.

Doukhobors' Appeal Is Set For July 19th

VANCOUVER, July 6.—(CP)—Mr. Justice J. M. Coady in British Columbia supreme court here yesterday set July 19 as the date for hearing of the application of 20 Doukhobors for release from prison on the grounds that magistrates did not have the authority to impose penitentiary sentences when they were tried summarily in police court and convicted on nudist charges.

Mr. Justice Coady last week ordered the release of 12 other Doukhobors serving prison terms following conviction on nudist charges in connection with disturbing demonstrations, ruling the magistrate had authority only to impose jail terms.

Germans who sobbed madly even after they had been picked up, of others who in a panic to gain the safety of the whaler almost capsize it.

Those 12 and eight others were convicted in Vancouver following demonstrations in Stanley Park and in police court. Another 13 were sentenced in police court at Nelson. One of the latter subsequently committed suicide in prison.

The order for the release of the 12 will be reviewed in court of appeal in Victoria July 18.

The other 20 involved in the July 19 hearing comprise six men and fourteen women. The women were transferred to Portsmouth penitentiary in Ontario and the question will arise whether a British Columbia supreme court judge can order their release.

Cause for Alarm

The revelation of figures showing that Alberta's divorce rate is substantially increasing is cause for alarm. It is shown that Alberta divorces for the first five months of 1944 totalled 222 which is 39 more than during the comparable period in 1943.

Indeed, this five month total is not far short of an entire year's product of the divorce mills before the war.

The total for 1943 was 422; for 1942 it was 380; there were 311 in 1941; 273 in 1940 and 267 in 1939.

Now, whatever the cause of this increase may be, it is intensely serious because the prevalence of divorce has most unfortunate implications. The stability of civilization is indicated by the stability of homes, because homes are the unit of civilized society.

Alberta's duty, then, is not so much to probe into the reasons for this increase as to take steps to halt it.

There is only one way to reduce the divorce rate. That is by making marriage more difficult. It is the hasty, and ill-considered marriages that come undone, not the deliberate and carefully considered ones.

Anything that will lengthen courtship and promote what is called in politics the "sober second thought" will react eventually against the prevalence of divorce.

Two such steps would be (1), extension of the period between the issue of a license and the actual ceremony and (2), the compulsory production of certificates from competent persons showing that the candidates are fit for marriage.

Would it not be possible to try something of the sort?

An Early Victory?

For some weeks, Allied leaders have wavered between forecasts of an early victory and forecasts of a long war. In one breath we are told there is a prospect of the European struggle being ended this year. In the next breath we are asked to prepare for unending months of difficult conflict.

This prophetic vacillation is explained, to some extent, by the splendid news coming currently from Russia. The Soviet armies, having expelled the Nazis from the strategic strongholds of Minsk and Polotsk are continuing to roll the German line back in what may be the greatest disaster that has yet overtaken Hitler.

It may be that the alternate hopes and fears of Allied leaders have been contingent upon what was expected to happen in this very drive. Can we expect, then, a more steadfastly optimistic view now that the hopes of Russian victories have been translated into accomplished fact?

Certainly the German high command does not appear to minimize the probable consequences of the Russian drive. Hitler has ordered his divisions to fight to the death. It is beginning to be clear that he and his advisors fear the Russian advance much more than they fear the Allied progress through France, not because the Russian force is more powerful, but because it offers more malignant possibilities.

It is quite justifiable, then, to speculate on the possibility of the German generals' capitulation to the Allies as a whole in preference to a surrender to a Russian commander established victoriously on German soil.

It should always be remembered, in connection with speculations about a German military collapse, that the war that still lies ahead in the Pacific precludes any possibility of a relaxation of effort on our part no matter what happens in Europe.

Retiring Teachers

Edmonton school teachers have requested the public school board to revise and consolidate all regulations with regard to the retirement of teachers so that it may be possible for them to contemplate retirement at the age of 60 with full allowances.

It would seem that the position of the teachers is well taken, provided the retirement funds are sufficient to offer an adequate allowance at this age. For there is no use retiring useful workers only to have them fall into penury and want.

The point is, however, that teaching is an exceedingly onerous profession that with unfortunate rapidity debilitates that elasticity of mind which is essential to successful instruction.

The complaint sometimes made about the irascibility of elderly teachers is a reproach that involves not a temperamental weakness on the part of the teacher, but the exhausting nature of the teacher's work. Irascibility and impatience are quite natural consequences of a job which is perhaps more vital to the welfare of human society than any other.

The contention that teachers should be retired at 60 is perfectly sound. If the state of retirement funds preclude it, then the retirement funds should be materially enlarged.

Juvenile Delinquency

The police chief of Toronto tells the Chief Constables Association of Canada that measures now being taken to control juvenile delinquency in this country are totally inadequate. He advocates a program of "Bible study in schools, physical training programs and other recreational facilities for youth as preventive measures."

One is forced to admit, with some reluctance, that modern youth has lost the faculty for self-amusement. Science has poured such a flood of amusement devices over the heads of the young that most adolescents are helpless and hopeless when left entirely to their own devices.

This is the circumstance that has changed the entire juvenile delinquency situation. For unless something wholesome is found for children to do, plenty of unwholesome amusements present themselves.

The problem of juvenile delinquency is no longer a negative proposition but a positive one. It is not enough to forbid the doing of certain harmful things. It has become an essential social duty to provide useful things for children to do.

Chief Draper is essentially correct in his positive view of the situation. It will be unfortunate if some dynamic national movement, unified in intent and method, does not grow out of his observations.

The fighting in Normandy has shifted from the American to the British-Canadian end of the beachhead. Rundstedt is thus striking at the nearest and most serious threat. Caen is only 130 miles or so from Paris. To by-pass the Allied spearhead there in order to mass forces for the recovery of the Cherbourg peninsula would be hazardous, and Rundstedt has the benefit of Rommel's advice about the danger of taking chances on Montgomery not noticing an opportunity to hit where it will hurt.

Greek factions are reported to have suspended their quarrels and agreed to unite against the Nazis. In Yugoslavia also there are signs that the forces of Tito and Michailovitch may join to help out the invaders. It has perhaps been called to the attention of the party leaders that they could hardly expect the other Allies to land armies in their countries and do the fighting while their own peoples wasted time and energy squabbling or sulking. Those who want help are more likely to get it if they do what they can to help themselves.

Commandos Save a Rockies Town

New Leadership Provided For Youngsters Changes Outlook

By E. S. Woodward in the Vancouver Province

Robb, a little mining town in the foothills of the Rockies, has been saved by commandos organized by the village school teacher.

There are children of 13 nationalities in the school. Until recently, the people were hostile and disunited and could not be induced to co-operate in organizing a school board. An official trustee had to be appointed. But the children smoked, drank, swore and stole, and by their truculence, feuds, profanity, thieving, lying and bullying, made the lot of teachers intolerable. Between September, 1942, and April, 1943, there was a change of teachers three times.

Parents were no better, perhaps worse. There is no church. A recent election was held up for two hours during a hunt for a Bible on which to swear a new voter. The people had plenty of money but twice a month nearly every able-bodied adult would walk eight miles to the nearest beer parlor for his quota.

In April, 1943, a new teacher arrived. By June she was wondering how long she could stay with the job. Then her husband, a flying officer in Toronto, sent her some data about the organization of new style commandos. She decided to stay on long enough to give it a fair trial.

The fact of a supreme originating power was learned from a potato. The children conceded that man could not make a potato or any living thing. Therefore their intelligence informed them of a higher power, the giver of good things. The same intelligence enabled them to distinguish between good and bad thoughts and actions.

The children consented to be organized into commandos to cultivate good and to destroy evil. They set themselves a number of objectives to be attained one by one systematically. The first was Berlin which represented smoking. "D" Day for the capture of Berlin was set for November 21. On the appointed day, every child was able to say that he had gained the objective.

Tokyo represented exaggeration. Gestapo represented lies, gossip and malicious speech. Hitler, Tojo, and Mussolini became the symbols of other specified evils. One by one, the commandos carried their objectives in dependence on the source of power.

The new spirit in the school was attested by many manifestations. "Findings are keepings" ceased to be the juvenile motto. A boy who admitted he had never before sought the owner of anything he had found, reported finding a fountain pen which was duly claimed. Halloween ceased to be an occasion for solicitation and wanton destruction. Instead, the children organized a "Milk for Britain" collection and thereby raised $25 for that worthy object. At the school Christmas concert, the president of the local miners' union publicly thanked the new teacher for the work she had done through the commandos.

Officialdom was compelled in due course to recognize the work of the Robb village school in the building of character and the making of men. In February the inspector visited the school. He quizzed the children about their commando books where-in were inscribed their self-imposed objectives. He declared that he had never imagined that children would have such a clear conception of good citizenship. In his report, he said in part:

"These youngsters are being given leadership and guidance. The development and growth in character of each individual is being given its rightful place and is having a marked influence upon the accomplishment of school work. Discipline in this school comes from the individual pupils rather than from the teacher, and consequently presents no problem. The wholesome, enthusiastic atmosphere which pervades this class-room, the school spirit which has developed, is ideal."

The key to the success of the Robb village commando system is self-discipline. Each pupil must set down his own deficiencies. Each must undertake to surmount them. It is the age-old but much neglected method of Christianity. Men can not be saved en masse and they can not be governed or regimented into good citizenship.

The mass can only be saved and good citizenship can only be placed on enduring foundations when individuals begin with themselves. That is the lesson of the commandos, organized amongst children, in the remote mining villages of Alberta.

It may well be that history will determine that the Robb commandos accomplished just as much for the emancipation of mankind as the doughty commandos who made possible the invasion of Europe.

Rise and Fall of Hun Air Power

From the Chicago Daily News

The rocket bomb or whatever the device may be which is now being showered on Southern England very likely is writing the epilogue of the story of the rise and fall of German air power. In 1940 the Germans would have hardly considered the use of a weapon necessarily so devoid of control and accuracy. They have resorted to the robot missile because they have lost the fight for real air power.

Yet Germany manufactured in the last eight years 79 per cent. as many military planes as the United States produced. In the Aviation News of June 5 there appeared an article based on the report of Mr. T. P. Wright, director of the Aviation Resources Control Office that throws light on Germany's phenomenal rise as an air power from 1936 through 1940 and the even more spectacular feat of the American aviation industry in overcoming Germany's great headstart.

Germany at the close of 1940 had produced 60,000 planes in a period of five years while we had manufactured only 14,000. But we manufactured 85,000 in the single year of 1943. Data on Germany's more recent production of aircraft are naturally not complete, but we have definite information to the effect that Germany's output of planes in 1943 was less than in 1942.

When Hitler started the war in Poland, his factories were already turning out 1,500 military planes a month, and we were not prepared to make more than 200 a month. We are now making more than 9,000 a month.

When President Roosevelt announced after Pearl Harbor that we were going to make 60,000 planes in 1942, and 125,000 (100,000 combat) in 1943, there was much inarticulate skepticism over here, and German scoffing was loud—Hitler leading the raspberry chorus.

But the job has been done. Because we have been building bigger and bigger planes we have not fulfilled the Roosevelt prediction to the exact numerical he used, but we have far exceeded it in power.

The appearance of the B-29's over Japan opens a new chapter in the rise of American air power while the almost simultaneous appearance of the sightless, mindless rocket bomb over Britain tells graphically of the decadence of German air power.

Germany's ascendancy in the air was a brief interlude—but a costly one for the entire world and in the end costlier for the Germans. Heinie would be better off today had he kept his feet on the ground.

Northern School Plans Sports Day

FAUST—The Students Union has planned a sports day on the last day of school. Surrounding schools have been invited to play ball and take part in other events. The W.A. will have a booth on the grounds. Funds from this will go toward cigarettes for the boys overseas.

A two-day sports card at Kinuso was attended by many Faust residents. Many took part in the rodeo show, horse racing, softball and dancing. A few are planning to attend the Calgary stampede next week.

Miss Agnes Menzies, Edmonton, is home visiting her parents for a few days.

Dorothy Pruden left for Vancouver last week where she will holiday with her grandmother and grandfather. Mrs. J. Eganick has gone to Lac La Biche to visit her sister, L. Wessel. Edmonton is in town tuning pianos. Miss M. Stockford left for Peace River and is not expected to return for a week. A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McRae on July 1. Those who attended included: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Menzies, William Menzies, George Helmer, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bannister, Mr. and Mrs. B. Skeed, Mr. and Mrs. M. Brillon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. Grace Paquette and Miss M. Evanuk.

With Those In Uniform

KILLAM—LAW. Verda Miller of Calgary and Rose Adams of Edmonton visited Kay Jack recently. Cpl. George Pederson of Camp Borden spent a short leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Pederson. Sgt. Robinson and Pte. E. Erickson of Red Deer spent the week-end with their families. Cpl. George Bonnett spent a short leave with his family.

FAUST—Pte. Frank Cook and Gnr. W. Menzies are home on furlough. Pte. Walter Miskigaj returned from overseas.

Hold Graduation At Glendon School

GLENDON—The graduation exercises of the high school took place in the community hall on June 30, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The president, Walter Kuklan was chairman.

A program of instrumental and vocal selections was given by the school orchestra and the pupils. Grades IX, X and XI put on Pageant "V-for-Victory." Robert Howatt read the class prophecy. Constantine Selazinka was the class valedictorian. Other addresses were given by superintendent J. L. Sylvestre who also presented the awards to the graduating class, and gave certificates to those taking highest marks in the various school grades. Mr. Shandro, the principal, L. F. Krawchuk, and W. E. Corbett spoke for the divisional board and R. M. Sherk for the local board.

Those graduating included, Lucy Wolkovich, Dorothy Chibonoff, Ruth Feschuk and Mary Grekul, Constantine Selazinka, Theodore Bodnar and William Hanson.

The following pupils have successfully passed the Toronto Conservatory of Music examination. Dorothy Johnson, Grade III; Paul Munro, Grade II with honors; Joan Nesimuk, Grade I with honors.

Mrs. Andrew Shwed of Vegreville and daughter are visiting Mrs. Shwed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spasiuk. Visitors here from Vancouver are George Filipechuk, Mrs. Harry Harbanenko and two daughters, Mrs. William Harbanenko and daughter, The Harbanenko brothers are in the R.C.A.F.

Disease Control Plan Is Outlined At Conference

CALGARY, July 6.—(CP)—A resolution calling for the establishment of combined observation clinics and detention homes for girls infected with venereal disease was passed by the provincial conference on venereal disease control in session here yesterday.

Elliot Ness, director of the social protection division, federal security agency, Washington, told the conference of measures taken to combat venereal disease in the United States.

WAR PROBLEM

"We always used to think of venereal disease as primarily a war problem," said Mr. Ness. "Through-out peacetime, medical men in the armed services have been searching for the answers to venereal disease problems."

"They found out it was not only a war problem but a vast problem under cover in peacetime."

Mr. Ness told of the eight-point plan worked out by the United States Army and Navy, providing for the interchange of information on venereal disease control with local and state health and law enforcement agencies.

Many police officials knew nothing of the connection between venereal disease and prostitution and were opposed to drives against "red light" districts which were valuable sources of information in criminal detection, he said.

LESS DISEASE

"In the two and a half years that our program has been in existence, more than 602 recognized districts have been wiped out," Mr. Ness said. "Wherever a district was cleaned up the venereal disease rate in nearby camps dropped sharply."

Mr. Ness defined the American program as removal from the community of those who had venereal disease and isolation of those suspected of infection from healthy people.

Canadian Tankmen Fight On in Italy

NEW YORK, July 6.—(CP)—Word that Canadian tank units were still fighting in Italy as late as June 22 was received here yesterday in a delayed dispatch from Doug How, Canadian Press war correspondent.

The cable, dated June 22, but received only yesterday without any explanation, told of tanks of a Canadian regiment meeting strong opposition from the Germans, after the Canadians had co-operated the previous day with British infantry.

How made no mention of the Canadian infantry, the last official report about which was given in his cable of June 5 when he said they had been withdrawn for a rest after capturing the town of Ferentino on Highway 6, about 40 miles southeast of Rome. Nor was any further mention made of Canadian tanks.

The only place where How has actually located Canadians since they were given a rest was Rome, where he said many of them were spending their leave sightseeing.

In all probability the cable received yesterday was delayed by censorship, possibly until the Germans had learned for themselves that they were opposing tanks manned by Canadians.

Cost of Caring For Japs Is Cut $750,000 in 1944

VANCOUVER, July 6.—(CP)—Taxpayers will pay $750,000 less this year to look after the 23,661 Japanese men, women and children in Canada, George E. Collins, B.C. Security Commission general superintendent, said yesterday.

The saving has been made possible by efforts of the commission to make the Japanese at least partially self-supporting, and by economies effected as a result of the relocating of several thousand Japanese in other parts of Canada as self supporting citizens.

Cost of caring for all Japanese in Canada was $5,000,000 last year, Mr. Collins said.

Japanese now quartered in the Security Commission's six interior camps are now earning for the commission close to $500,000 a year.

Powerful Maquis Forces Surround German Soldiers

PORT BOU, Spain, July 6.—(AP)—The guerrilla battle of Corceira has reached such proportions that reports reaching the Spanish border last night said powerful Maquis forces had surrounded several thousand German troops trying to free Tulle, capital of the department.

Information reaching here said that Tulle, a city of 25,000, still was in Maquis hands while patriot forces to the southwest had launched an attack against the Germans in Brive.

If the Maquis seize sufficient territory to provide landing fields for airborne troops, the way might be opened for a full scale offensive in this area.

On Way Home

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(AP)—Laurence A. Steinhardt, American ambassador to Turkey, is on his way home for consultations but the United States state department said his return involved no question of relations between the United States and Turkey.

He's Deferred!

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, July 6.—(CP)—Pte. George W. Lemelis of Detroit, who landed in France on D-Day with an engineers battalion, has received a letter from home. Delivered while German shells were bursting around him, the letter was from his Detroit draft board to tell him he had been granted a year's deferment on occupational grounds.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

ANNOUNCEMENT that the city sandlot fastball tournament will commence on July 15 (entries are to be in three days earlier) actually carries more significance than at first might be attributed to it.

Results of various midget and juvenile sandlot games have been published from time to time, but the extent to which these boys' leagues have been operating probably is not appreciated, except by those who are helping the good work along.

Doubtless it will be a surprise to many (it certainly was to this operator) to learn that over 1,000 "knobhole" passes to senior baseball games at Renfrew Park were handed out to boys taking part in the various leagues. Nevertheless, that is the number Doug Stevenson says were given out and he should know, for he, Frank Drayton and Ken McAuley, of the City Welfare Department, were "in on the deal" right from the start.

And Doug, who is catcher for the high-flying Dodgers in the senior ball circuit and doing a nifty job of it, hinted that city-wide baseball leagues may be launched next year as a natural outgrowth of this season's fastball activities amongst boys.

And, by the way, Frank Drayton's friends, and they are legion, will be pleased to learn he is coming along nicely in hospital and should be around again shortly. Frank never was a fellow to give up easily, and soon should have one more successful battle to add to a very lengthy list.

HERE AND THERE...

QUALIFYING round of the city golf tournament is scheduled for Saturday at Edmontown Golf and Country Club, with the first and second rounds on Sunday. An entry list of 30 is in sight, headed of course by Henry Martell of the Highlands, perennial city champion.

Al Walker, a prospective starter for tonight's senior ball session against Arrows, has won three games for Arrows this season in addition to doing three relief turns. He won every start and in them allowed just five earned runs. Six were charged against him in the relief jobs. He has worked 26 innings all-told and struck out 25.

Forrest Hunter, another prospect for Yanks tonight, pitched and won his game against all-stars Saturday shutting them off without a hit until the seventh and giving up four in the ninth. He won his first league start (June 5 against Arrows), being touched for five hits, one earned and two unearned runs.

Morris Hawkey, leading pitcher for the league a year ago, has appeared in four games for the Arrows this season, winning only one. Fourteen earned runs have been scored against him, but six were in the last game. He has tossed 25 2-3 innings and struck out 25. Hawkey has issued 13 bases on balls, as compared to four by Hunter and 23 by Walker.

Cecil (Tiger) Goldstick, was around yesterday checking over some of his former haunts and says everything looks okay. The "Tiger" has almost four years and a half of service in the Canadian Navy to his credit. As might have been expected he did considerable "rassling" out west, but also kept his hand in the sport writing game.

Whiteley Grabs Two Events In No. 4 I.T.S. Track Meet

A big track and field meet, highlighted by the performance of F. Whiteley of Vancouver who won both the 100 yards dash and the 220, was held at No. 4 Initial Training School Wednesday afternoon to select the competitors for the July 8 meet at Clarke Stadium.

Course 104 came out on top of the eight groups competing for winning honors with 26 points while "W" Flight was second with 24, 105 third with 21, 107 fourth with 20, Headquarters fifth with 13, 108 sixth with eight and "X" and P.A.E.D. tied for seventh with six counters each.

Although spiked shoes were not used, Whiteley managed to out-distance a couple of old country athletes, Cpl. Hewitt of London and LAC. Bisp. Cardiff, Wales who came second and third respectively. Walker should prove a real challenger in the mile on Saturday.

The sergeant's relay team out-ran the officers in the relay race.

Following are the results:

100 yards—F. Whiteley, Vancouver; J. Stevens, Winnipeg; A. Williams, Edmonton. Time 1:1.

220 yards—F. Whiteley, Vancouver; Cpl. B. B. Marshall, Vancouver; Cpl. B. B. Marshall, Vancouver. Time 2:30.

440 yards—R. Thompson, Saskatoon; P. Harrison, Victoria; B. Archibald, Cardston. Time 6:10.

880 yards—De. Faye, B. Archibald, J. Reich. Time 12:30.

One mile—Walker, Vancouver; Cpl. Hewitt, London; Edg. and LAC. Bisp. Cardiff, Wales, tied for second. Time 4:50.

Two miles—Run by W. Light. High jump—AC2 Milroy, Edmonton; P. Sgt. H. Webb, Vancouver; LAC. Harding. Height 4'8.

Running broad jump—Cpl. B. H. Murphy, Saskatoon; AC. A. P. Black, Vancouver; Cpl. Rose. Distance 18'1.

Javelin throw—AC2 G. Reich, Edmonton; AC2 G. Reich, Edmonton; P. E. Beaupre, Montreal; P. Sgt. G. A. Sellers, Vancouver; Sgt. W. B. Rideout, Grand Falls, N.B.

Shot put—LAC. D. M. Harding, Winnipeg; Sgt. F. Mason, Watrous. Distance 32'4.

Relay (officers vs. sergeant)—P. Sgt. F. J. Maher, Pembroke; Ont. Sgt. P. E. Beaupre, Montreal; P. Sgt. G. A. Sellers, Vancouver; Sgt. W. B. Rideout, Grand Falls, N.B.

Red Deer Army Fastballers Beat Enlisted Men 12-1

RED DEER, July 6.—Steady pitching, hermetically sealed fielding and some well placed slugging gave the A20 soldier fastballers a 12-1 victory over the visiting U.S. Enlisted Men from Edmonton in an exhibition game here Wednesday night.

Godfrey hurled for the visitors, granting a total of five hits and was himself responsible for the lone hit of the game off Pfeiffer, on the mound for A20.

The hometown boys rang up two runs in the initial canpo after Godfrey had walked his first two outs, and they staged a merry-go-round in the third when every player visited the plate and six runs were added to the tally.

Highlight of the game was a near miraculous catch by Cpl. Freddy Cranston, A20 rover, taking several feet in the air after a meteoric dash deep into left field.

Score by innings:

U.S.	001 000 000—1
A20	206 000 000—12

Summary—U.S.: 1 hit, 1 run, 4 errors, 3 strikeouts, 6 walks, A20: 5 hits, 12 runs, 1 error, 5 strikeouts, 5 walks.

Batteries—Godfrey and Heroux; Pfeiffer and Yawezuk.

Shepperton Fifth In Camden Start

CAMDEN, N.J., July 6.—(CP)—Max Marmorstein's Best Reward, a $26.20 return on a $2 investment, drove to victory Wednesday in the $7,500 added Camden Handicap, feature event as Garden State Park opened its racing season.

Toronto-owned Shepperton, which recently set a track record of 1:44 3-5 for a mile and one sixteenth at Woodbine, was unable to find racing space on the backstretch but finished stoutly under jockey Bobby Watson when clear to take fifth place. The Fred Scheike runner went to the post a 2-1 favorite.

Fats and Walk-Rite "A" Win in Fastball

Betty Carveth Shuts Out 'B' On Two Hits

ARMY and Navy Pats scored two runs in the last of the seventh in the first City Girls' Fastball League game at Kingsway Park Wednesday night to edge out Bomberettes 3-2. Walk-Rite "A" shut out the "B" entry 7-0 on Betty Carveth's two-hit pitching in the second contest.

Trailing 2-1 with two out in the last frame, the Pats banged out a pair of doubles and a single by pinch-hitter Mary Verenka to tally twice and win.

Theresa Lafleur started the winners' threat with a double to right field. Nadina Hatch followed with a two-bagger to short field to drive in Lafleur with the tying run. Hatch going to third when an attempt was made to stop the Pat catcher at the plate. Mary Verenka then came up with a nice single to left field to drive in Hatch. Left fielder Stella Noel threw to the plate, but Hatch slid and beat the throw.

Jean Stewart went the distance for the winners and only allowed three safe blows while the Pats got to Lois Stoughton for six hits, including three doubles.

The Bomberettes played errorless ball and managed to gain a 2-0 margin by the end of the first half of the sixth, but were unable to hold the lead as Pats scored one in the last of the sixth and then won out in the seventh.

Audrey Wellman counted the first run of the game in the second. She singled to left and went to second when Ruby Ford failed to field the ball properly. The runner advanced to third on a passed ball and then crossed the plate on an error.

Elaine Potts added one for the Bomberettes in the sixth when she waited for four ball from Stewart, went to second on a two-bagger by Betty Smith and then scored on a put out at the initial sack.

The Pats' first run was scored by Lafleur who singled to short and then travelled the rest of the way around on Hatch's double.

Following is the box score:

Bomberettes	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Graham, c	2	0	0	2	1	0

10 SAFETIES FOR "A" IN GAINING 7-0 VICTORY

Walk-Rite "A" collected a total of 10 hits off Val Stevenson in the second game last night in defeating Walk-Rite "B" 7-0 and maintaining their unbeaten string.

Betty Carveth pitched outstanding ball for the winners in only allowing a double and a single and striking out seven in seven innings on the mound.

Walk-Rite "A" came through with three runs in the second frame. Mickey McConnell singled to right field, advanced on two passed balls, remained there while Jean Barton got a walk, and then came home along with the latter on a double to centre by Margaret Royce. Royce went to third on a put out and first and tallied on an error.

Jackie Ford rounded the bases on two singles, an error and a passed ball in the fourth to make it 4-0 and then the winners added three more in the fifth. Frances Zavitz hit safely to left field, made second on a passed ball, third on McConnell's single to centre and was batted in by Jean Barton who singled to left sending McConnell to third. Barton then stole second and McConnell scored on an out at first. Barton was batted in by Isabel Whittley who laid down a long single to left.

Following is the box score:

Walk-Rite "A"	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
M. McConnell	3	0	0	2	0	1
D. Jones	3	0	0	1	1	1
Stevens	3	0	0	1	1	1

Walk-Rite "A" — 4 runs, 0 errors, 1 hit, 0 runs, 4 errors, 3 strikeouts, 6 walks, A20: 5 hits, 12 runs, 1 error, 5 strikeouts, 5 walks.

Batteries—Godfrey and Heroux; Pfeiffer and Yawezuk.

At any rate, it's probably an omen of the future and an indication of which way the hockey star current will drift after the war when amateur sport of all kinds get back on a big-time basis. Then the Canadians will have to watch their laurels or they may be snatched right down to Hollywood or New Orleans.

HERE AND THERE:

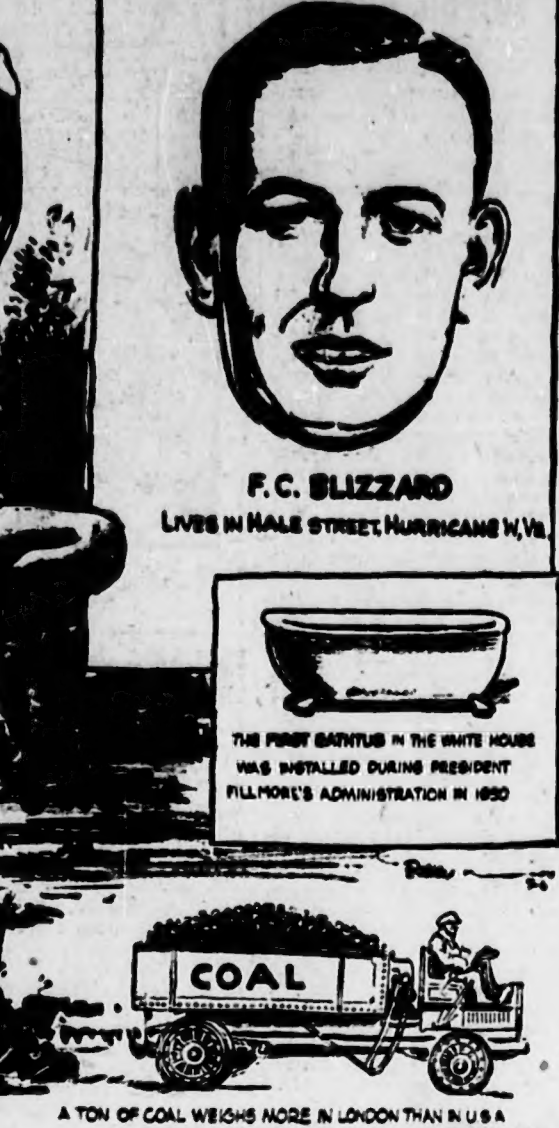

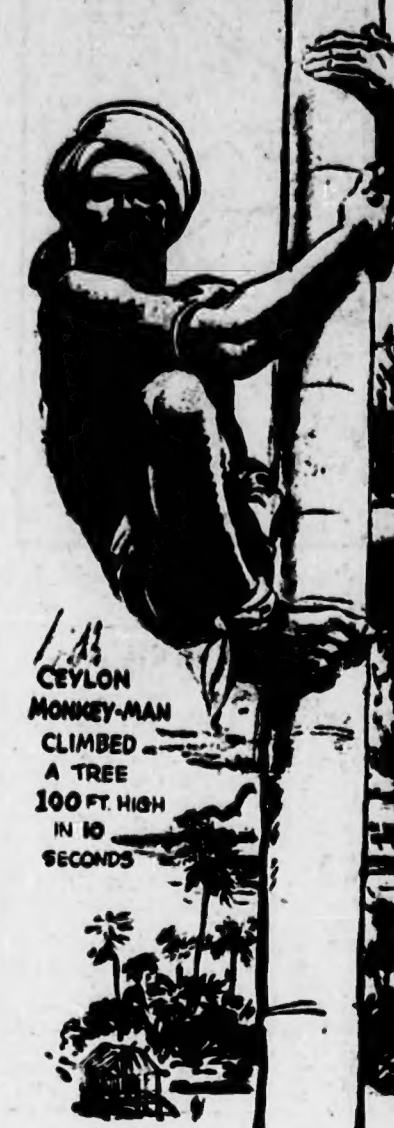

The baseball loop in Vancouver is getting to be a family affair. Danny Holden, 17, is pitching at St. Regis to victories, while big brother Eddie is the star of Arrows. Bitter rivals of St. Regis and current leaders of the league.

Honoring one of Nova Scotia's most prominent athletes to die in the services, residents of Halifax dedicated the Larry O'Connell memorial playgrounds the other day. O'Connell, star hockey player and all-round athlete, was killed in a training accident in Canada after returning from his tour of bombing ops overseas. Another athlete, Mel Lundie of numerous hockey squads in Edmonton and Vancouver, has been killed on the Normandy bridgehead. ... There's no searthy of betting money out west either. On Dominion Day at Winnipeg's Polo Park, $242,225 was wagered through the week. This was 20 per cent more than July 1 last year, and $30,797 more than on the best day last season.

Early Favorite In Hambletonian Is Yankee Maid

NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—If some of the other horses don't start moving faster very soon, a Kansas-owned filly is going to win the major share of the $40,000 purse when the 19th Hambletonian is trotted over Goshen's Good Time track on Aug. 9.

Yankee Maid, owned by A. L. Derby, Wichita oil man, already has whipped other leading candidates for the buggy whip derby in the Matron and Stallion stakes at North Randall. In both races she won in straight heats, taking the Matron in 2:06 1/2 and 2:05 and the Stallion in 2:05 1/2 and 2:06.

An easy winner of both stakes, that daughter of Volomite has yet to equal her record of 2:04, hung up in winning the Lexington Stake last fall. Under the guidance of Henry Thomas, driver of two Hambletonian winners, Yankee Maid turned in the fastest time of any two-year-old last year after being purchased as a yearling for $1,500.

Foxs Taken Off Cubs' Active List

CHICAGO, July 6.—(AP)—The comeback attempt of Jimmy Foxs, home-hammering star of the Philadelphia Athletics and Boston Red Sox in the late 20's and the 30's, Wednesday was officially pronounced a failure by the Chicago Cubs, who transferred him from their active list to the status of a coach and bull pen catcher.

Foxs, 36, reported to the Cubs in the midst of spring training this year after remaining out of baseball all last season.

Another Beazley

The City of Edmonton Squadron Fund received a boost Wednesday afternoon when R.A.A.F., R.N.Z.A.F. and R.C. A.F. men from No. 3 "M" Depot entertained about 1,500 fans with three exciting football games at Clarke Stadium. The show was sponsored by the Lions Club and was staged by permission of Group Capt. R. M. Smith of the "M" Depot.

The Canadians beat the Australians 5-1 in the soccer match, the single engine pilot trainees edged out the future twin engine aviators 37-36 in an Australian rules football clash and a mixed team of new Zealanders and Aussies turned back a R.A.A.F. squad 7-5 in a Union rules exhibition.

WILLIAMSON SCORES FOUR

The soccer and Australian rules game held the most interest among the fans. In the soccer tilt, Sgt. "Jock" Williamson, centre forward for the Canadians, paced the winners to their victory with four of the five goals. Bruce Stephens, inside right scored the other one for the Canucks while Doug Mascord kicked the lone Aussie tally.

The soccer game is quite clear to most Canadians, but the Australian rules and the Union rules games are puzzling to most people in this country and even for some of those from down under.

Soccer is played with a round ball and has strict rules, quite different to the other two games witnessed yesterday. The other two types of football are played with an "egg shaped" ball and play is not stopped very often as in the case of soccer or our own type of rugby.

The single engine pilots kicked five goals, all worth six points and got the ball behind the line one way or another seven times in winning the Australian rules clash 37-36. The losers had four goals and 12 behinds.

Kevin Tibbott, Stuart Hogan, Viv Florence, Colin Bauer and Frank Boulter kicked the winners' seven, while Lyle Saunders, Des Donkin, Leslie McKenzie and John Collins accounted for the twin engine six pointers. A goal is scored by kicking the ball through the uprights.

Ralph Shallness, who gained fame as a player with Melbourne back in Australia, captained the winning team while McKenzie was the other captain. In this game there is no tackling and kicking is one of the features.

Shallness' team was behind 8-3 at the half way mark, but managed to come through with five goals and four other points to win out.

MOORE KICKS WELL

Led by the kicking of FO. Geff Moore, D.F.M., who accounted for four points the New Zealand-Aussie squad managed to out-class the Australians in the Union rules game, second to be staged at the stadium in the past week.

Moore kicked a field goal and converted a try, which is worth three points, by Errol Tod all in the first half for the winners' seven. The Aussie's counters came on a try by Dick O'Brien and a convert by "Wimpy" Bulmer, also in the initial half.

New Zealand fullback, Des Donkin, played a nice game for the winners and his kicking was exceptionally good.

Rutherford school grade 7 and 8 teams are in both the girls' and boys' city school fastball finals, which are scheduled for this afternoon.

The girls will play Ritchie, last year's champions for the city title at King Edward school grounds at 4 o'clock, while the boys will meet Cromdale on Norwood diamond at the same time. Both are sudden-death games.

In order to reach the final round Rutherford girls eliminated Eastwood, Jasper Place and Bennett, while the boys' team defeated McCauley in the semi-final on Tuesday by a score of 5-3.

Rutherford girls won their semi-final test with Bennett (who knocked out MacKay Ave. and McDougall schools in the playdowns) by a 9-2 count on Tuesday. They scored six runs in the third inning, while Jean Fraser pitched for Rutherford, held Bennett scoreless until the ninth.

Aga Khan's Entry Takes Gold Cup In Great Finish

NEWMARKET, July 6.—(CP Cable)—The Aga Khan's Umiddad, in a thrilling finish that ranked with the best in the annals of Britain's distance races, won the coveted Gold Cup over a grueling 2 1/4-mile course Wednesday. Umiddad won by a head from Bright Lady, owned by Tom Venn, and the only mare in the field of five.

The duel between the first two runners over the final furlong had the crowd shrieking. Bright Lady had set up a five-length lead before the stretch was reached. Then Umiddad made his final effort under the guidance of veteran Gordon Richards, Britain's perennial jockey champion, and gradually closed the distance.

Time for the winner, the odds-on favorite, was not announced. In third place, six lengths back, was Milling, owned by the flour magnate, James Rank. Paul Thompson's Prospect was fourth, and A. J. Redman's Harroway, last.

JIM TOBIN RETURNS CHICAGO CUBS TO CELLAR

CHICAGO, July 6.—(AP)—Jim Tobin, the Boston Braves' master of the "butterfly" pitch, fluttered his knuckleball past the Cubs for his season's ninth victory, 7-2, Wednesday and thereby returned the Chicagoans to the National League cellar after their one night of dis-interment since April.

Bidding for another no-hitter, the big right-hander retired the first 16 Cubs to face him in order.

The Braves, who climbed back to seventh place by the victory, combed Paul Erickson, Dale Alderson and Hi Vandenberg for 13 hits, including four singles by second baseman Connie Ryan.

Boston 020 110 201—7 15 0; Chicago 000 000 002—2 7 1.

REDS BEAT BROOKLYN FOR THIRD STRAIGHT

CINCINNATI, July 6.—(AP)—Cincinnati made it three in a row over Brooklyn as Ed Heusser limited the Dodgers to three hits to give the Reds a 4-1 National League triumph Wednesday.

The streak extended the Dodgers' losing streak to nine straight, all in the west. Ed Head started for the Dodgers, and gave up all the Red's runs, to be charged with his second loss, after four consecutive wins.

Brooklyn 000 100 000—1 3 2; Cincinnati 021 010 004—4 8 1.

NEW YORK, July 6.—If handsome does as handsome is, the ring's great sex appeal slugger—Lee Oma—should become heavyweight champion of the world without having an eyebrow plucked by hostile glove.

Oma, the "Russian Rocker," who resembled the late Rudolph Valentino—except that he has more oomph—just recently accepted Lou Nova, the yogi man, as his next opponent, to prove that beauty is more than skin deep.

Oma, of the glossy black hair, olive complexion and blonde summing teeth, will tangle with Nova at Detroit's Olympia on July 14. He eagerly accepted Nova as his opponent, but he was reluctant to return to Detroit, his home city, where he is regarded as an "ugly duckling"—despite his masculine beauty.

MADE EARLY MISTAKES
OMA, now 27 and apparently at the peak of his prowess, is regarded as an "ugly duckling" in Detroit because of early mistakes that he made in and out of the ring—mistakes that we will not enlarge upon at this writing. Suffice to say that since lurching Lee left Detroit 14 months ago he has fought with such effectiveness that today he is the sixth ranking American heavyweight, in the ratings of the National Boxing Association and the Ring Magazine.

Handsome Oma, whose father and mother were born in Russia and who machine guns the Russian language himself, has fought 25 times under the colors of manager Tex Sullivan, since his reforming.

He lost only three bouts, and won 22. Of the victories he is working on 19 in a row. He has kayoed 12 of these opponents, including Danny Cox, Larry Sealine, John Denson, Herbert Marshall, Dusty Wilkerson and Georgia Parks. He has outpointed such well-known performers as Wallace Cross and Budd Knox.

NEW EXPERIENCE FOR TEX
TEX Sullivan, former secretary to heavyweight champion Jim Braddock and manager Joe Gould, says: "Managing Oma is a brand new experience for me. I isn't just a question of keeping him in shape and arranging matches—it's me against the women. Everywhere Oma goes, I have to fight the women off. Sometimes I wish some opponent would bash his nose, and spoil his perfect profile, and give him cauliflower ears. It would make things easier for me. At first, I was polite to the women; but I am no longer polite. Now I push them around, which I don't like to do. Please do me a favor—tell the women that Oma is married—and not interested."

Because of the women and the importance of the July 14th fight

Toronto Entries Win Five Events In Quebec Swim

VERDUN, Que., July 6.—(CP)—Toronto swimming experts showed style and speed here last night when they captured five swimming championships from local entries at the Province of Quebec swimming championship meet. The main purpose of the meet was to select participants who will represent the province of Quebec in the Dominion championship meet to be held in Vancouver. Names of swimmers of the Quebec team will be announced later.

Pretty Jean Mowatt of Toronto edged out the famed swimmer and skier Rhoda Wurtele of Montreal to win 100-yard back stroke in the women's division and also captured the 100-yard breast stroke. Other Toronto winners were Barbara Hunt in the 100-yard free style, senior women's division; Margaret Harrington, 100-yard free style in the junior women's division; Ross Charlton, 100-yard back stroke in the junior men's division.

at Detroit, Sullivan has been keeping Oma at Bay's camp for the past couple of weeks. He will go to Detroit Saturday to finish his conditioning.

Sullivan, who also manages heavyweight Lee Q. Murray and middleweight George Kocian, "Promoter Nick Lombard at Detroit expects at $40,000 gate. I hope he's right. What I'm afraid of is that the dames in Detroit will find out that Oma is back in town and the gate will go to $80,000—and I'll have to do more fighting than Oma."

Browns Come Through In Ninth Donald Hurts Seven-Hitter To Defeat Cleveland 6-2

NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—Atley Donald held Cleveland Indians to seven hits as the New York Yankees defeated the Tribe 6-2 in an American League game Wednesday.

It was the second time this season Donald had beaten the Indians, and extended his record over them to 11 wins and one loss for his career.

Bud Metheny led the Yankee attack with a single and his ninth homer of the year, in the fifth inning.

Sandlot Tourney Entries Should Be in by July 12th

July 12 is the final date for entries for the city-wide sandlot football tournament which will commence on July 13.

Names and addresses of the team captains also must be sent to the directors, Sandlot Football League, 603 Civic Block, at the time entries are made.

The tournament will consist of sudden-death knockout games in both juvenile and midget divisions until only two survivors remain in each. The finals will be a best-of-three series, and the members of the winning teams will receive medals suitably inscribed.

Other than regulations concerning age, there are no restrictions on entry into the tournament. Midgets are those boys who are not over 15 as at July 1, and the age limit for juveniles is 18 at the same date.

Doug Stevenson or Ken McAuley who will be in charge of the tournament will be pleased to supply such further information as may be required, at 603 Civic Block.

Manpower Policy Is Again Sharply Attacked by Tory

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—Howard Green, Progressive Conservative member for Vancouver South constituency in British Columbia, said yesterday in the Commons that the government's manpower policy is "risking a shortage of reinforcements" for the army overseas, and "is making all the talk of equality of sacrifice... just a mockery in this land."

Russia Is Eager To Co-Operate On World Fund

By THOMAS HAGENBUCH

BRETTON WOODS, N.H., July 6.—(AP)—The Russian attitude toward the projected world stabilization fund and international bank was characterized as highly sympathetic yesterday by an informed United States government official.

"The Russians are eager to co-operate in a field in which they previously had taken little part," said this official, who declined to be quoted by name.

The Russian attitude was disclosed as the first definite progress of the United Nations monetary conference was reported through the acceptance of a number of minor alternative proposals in the fund.

EXCHANGE PURCHASE

The proposals had to do with the purchase of foreign exchange from the fund and would not alter the general operation as outlined in the joint statement of principles under which the conference is working.

At the same time, Dr. Harry D. White, official conference spokesman, disclosed that a committee considering a proposal relating to blocked balances had been unable to reach an agreement and had decided to report the matter to the full fund commission. It will be up to the commission to decide whether the proposal, aimed at unblocking Britain's war balances, will be made a part of the fund.

No Action Started For Child's Custody

VANCOUVER, July 6.—(CP)—D.

N. Hossie of Vancouver, counsel for Court Haugwitz-Reventlow, said yesterday that as far as he knew his client's former wife, the former Barbara Hutton, has made no move to obtain custody of their nine-year-old son Lance.

Haugwitz-Reventlow brought the boy to Vancouver last Thursday, two days before Lance should have been turned over to his mother under a separation settlement which provided the child live with each parent six months alternately.

Mr. Hossie said that the Los Angeles attorney for Haugwitz-Reventlow had informed the mother, now Mrs. Cary Grant, of the boy's whereabouts and indicated the father may not be prepared to relinquish him.

Last week Haugwitz-Reventlow dropped a legal contest with Mrs. Grant over the rearing of their son.

Canada Extends Mutual Aid to Her Allies

Under the Mutual Aid Plan, Canada has expended close to one billion dollars in goods and services for the United Nations. The extent of this help is portrayed above. While to date, the assistance to the Fighting French has not been extensive—mainly naval ordinance—a larger program has been initiated to meet their needs.

understanding about it, that we shall not allow the battle operations in Normandy or the attacks we are making on special targets in Germany to suffer."

Churchill thus disposed of the cry raised in parliament and in the press in the past week for some form of retaliation against the Germans, possibly the indiscriminate bombing to destruction of some of their cities, including those not essential to the war effort.

That the government is considering some form of reprisal was indicated, however, when the prime minister said that "the flying bomb is a weapon literally and essentially indiscriminate in its nature, purpose and effect and the introduction of such a weapon by the Germans obviously raises some grave questions upon which I do not purpose to touch today."

BASES HEAVILY HIT

The prime minister also revealed that:

1. Some 50,000 tons of bombs have been dropped by the Allied air forces on flying bomb and rocket targets in France and Germany, the latter objectives including the experimental station at Peenemunde on the Baltic coast. As new sites are constructed or existing ones repaired, new attacks are made.

2. Transport Minister Lord Leathers has arranged additional train services to assist in the voluntary evacuation of mothers and children from London.

3. Large numbers of building workers are now engaged in repairing damaged buildings and "copious reinforcements" are arriving daily from the provinces.

4. Penicillin will be available for the treatment of robot bomb casualties.

5. Churchill has appointed a sub-committee responsible directly to him to advise on offensive and defensive methods of dealing with the flying bombs. The sub-committee includes Air Marshal Sir Roderick Hill, chief of the air defence of Great Britain and Gen. Sir Frederick Phillips, chief of the anti-aircraft command as representative of Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder, deputy supreme Allied commander, and has a great number of scientists and engineers at its disposal.

6. Robot bomb casualties henceforth will be announced monthly by the home security ministry "as this battle may be a somewhat lengthy affair."

7. Considering the modest weight and small penetrating power of these bombs, damage done by blast has been extensive, though not to be compared with the destruction which the Allies have inflicted on Berlin, Hamburg, Cologne and other German cities.

"There can be no question of allowing the slightest weakening in battle," Churchill said in concluding his 40-minute speech. "London will never be conquered and will never fail in her resolve. Triumphing over every ordeal, her light will long shine among men."

"Everyone must remain at his post and discharge his daily duties," he said.

"This house would be affronted if any suggestion were made to it that it should change its venue from London. (Cheers). Here we began the war and here we will see it ended."

The prime minister added, however, that he was not discouraging people who have no essential work to do from leaving London at their own expense.

"In fact they assist our affairs by taking such action," he said. "We do not want more people in London than are required for the purposes of peace and war."

gressive Conservatives was not taken and a CBC official here said he did not think the half hour would be left to the party's credit to be used at a later date. They were not certain, however.

In a tentative program which has been worked out, free time for a Liberal speaker has been allotted for July 19 and the Social Credit party has been given a half hour Aug. 2. Hence the cycle of time under the new political broadcast policy of the CBC will see monthly half hours going to Liberals, Progressive Conservatives, Co-operative Commonwealth Federationists, Liberals and Social Credit in that order.

This would give the government, which has a majority in the Commons, an extra broadcast during the cycle, said a CBC spokesman. He added complete and final details had not been worked out yet.

"SERIOUS DANGER"

Last night Mr. Coldwell spoke of the "serious danger" of post-war depression if the country returned to the old system of what he called "unplanned private enterprise in which powerful forces in this country wish to return us."

Standards of living must be improved by nation-wide democratic planning or Canada might face a revolutionary upheaval. He said social security legislation before the Commons was "belated" and said his party knew that if social security measures are not to inflict great burdens of taxation on the farmers, workers and people generally, they must be accompanied by plans to achieve full production and full employment.

He then outlined the C.C.F. party's idea of post-war objectives. These included:

General Offensive

Central America Republics Drive on 'Strong-Man' Rule

By JOHN LLOYD

MEXICO CITY, July 6.—(AP)—The anti-dictator upheavals sweeping Central America took on the appearance today of a general offensive to clear the little countries wedged in between Mexico and Panama of strong-man governments which for years have held undisputed sway.

Reports that Gen. Tiburcio

Carias Andino, president of Honduras, had resigned, lacked official confirmation, but direct dispatches from the picturesque capital city of Tegucigalpa said crowds demanding that he quit tried to break down the doors of his palace.

Carias would be the third of Central America's strong-man presidents to quit. Within a period of two months Generals Jose Ubico of Guatemala and Maximiliano Hernandez Martinez of El Salvador, both strong-man presidents, gave up office after rioting in their capitals.

DISORDERS IN CAPITAL

In Nicaragua, southernmost of the strong-man countries, Gen. Anastasio Somoza was reported to be holding tight to his presidency although in his capital, Managua, disorders also had occurred.

A disquieting note came even from tiny democratic Costa Rica where the public security minister, Rene Picado, was quoted as charging that groups opposed to the government were plotting a revolution.

Anti-government opinion has been effectively squelched within the countries concerned over a period of years but political exile groups have been vociferous in their attacks on the strongman regimes.

The rapidity with which Gen. Hernandez Martinez was forced out in El Salvador surprised many who expected a more prolonged struggle, but more surprising still was the quick resignation of Gen. Ubico, strongest of Central American strong men, in Guatemala when rioting broke out there.

Jap Resort Burns

NEW YORK, July 5.—(AP)—A Tokyo broadcast today said a "disastrous fire" ravaged the Fukushima prefecture resort of Iisaka during the night of July 1, destroying 193 buildings, including 19 hotels.

56,000 Prisoners Taken in France

SUPREMACY HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, July 6.—(AP)—Headquarters announced last night that the Allied bag of prisoners in the first month of invasion totalled more than 50,000. It previously had been announced the American forces captured 43,000 in the peninsula around Cherbourg, and it was estimated unofficially that the total was at least 56,000 counting those taken in the push into Le Havre.

Captive Exchange

MADRID, July 6.—(AP)—Informations, Madrid newspaper, reported yesterday that a third exchange of Allied and German prisoners in Spain would occur July 28 at Barcelona.

Among those killed at Minsk were "several tens of thousands of Hamburg Jews brought to the Minsk ghetto," it added.

Census Will Reveal Increase in Permanent Population

Decrease in Transient Residents Not As Heavy As Had Been Estimated

The pessimists who predicted that Edmonton's population would fall below the 100,000 mark when the major United States war projects were completed are due for a surprise when the 1944 population figures are released here at the end of this week.

$10 Mexican Bill Doesn't Pay Off

A 17-year-old youth who passed off a Mexican $10-bill on Wong Ho, proprietor, Central Laundry, 10306 97 street, shortly after noon Wednesday, admitted to police that he had received $8.65 in change from the bill. He later returned it to the rightful owner.

The youth, who came from Thorhill, was picked up by police at his stopping place in the city, after Wong, discovering that the bill was not what he thought it had been, reported the matter. The bill was tendered in payment of some laundry.

Walking Between Cars Is Dangerous

Don't do it! Walking out onto the roadway between parked cars is a dangerous thing to do. Save yourself possible injury. Cross at intersections only.

ROAD REPORTS

The forecast is general rains in the northern part of the province. On the Willingdon line there was some considerable rain on Wednesday.

Grading crews are working between Calgary and Crossfield and short detours in dry weather are necessary, otherwise traffic on highway warned by signs and flares. Between Camrose and Daysland grading crew is at work and traffic detour is from Camrose to Otonabee on gravelled highway.

The highway to Dawson Creek is now in full operation. The ban is off all highways for trucks and buses except on highway No. 16 between Wildwood and Edson. The road between Rossington and Freedom on highway No. 18 is still impassable, but it is reported that the Barrhead area may be reached by crossing the river at Manola. None of the roads in that area are particularly good, but we understand that motor vehicles have come in from Barrhead via Manola and Vimy. We have reports that the ferry at Sanguine is not yet in full operation, but that cars and light trucks are getting through.

Police Arrest, Charge Couple With Robbery

Two persons, a man and a woman, were in police custody Thursday, after being identified by Moses Ward, 105 avenue and 131 street, and Walter Moryn, 9644 102A avenue, as the two responsible for attacking and robbing the former of his wallet and $2.75 about 1 a.m. that morning.

Olaf Pederson and Adeline Graham were the two persons placed under arrest, and who appeared before Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C., in city police court Thursday morning, charged with theft from person.

No plea was entered by W. G. K. Bloor, defence counsel, and the case was adjourned to Friday, without bail.

According to police, Ward was walking on 103 avenue when someone suddenly jumped him, knocked him to the pavement and then took his wallet, containing the money, from a pants pocket.

The fracas attracted the attention of Moryn, who was on his way home at the time, and who watched the fight briefly before running to a nearby telephone to call police.

Learning that the offenders had been a man and a woman, officers took Ward and Moryn along in an effort to identify them, should they meet them. Pederson and Adeline Graham, when seen by the men, were identified as those being responsible. Both accused have police records.

There will be a fine display of photography at the Canadian Legion hut on Kingsway, to which the public is invited. Pictures have been donated by numerous photographers.

Bank clearings through the Edmonton Clearing House for the week ended July 4 amounted to $9,024,415.66 as against $10,035,556.64 for the corresponding week of last year.

A number of personnel selection officers are likely to be required during the next few months. Lt. Commander J. A. Dawson stated Thursday. Applicants must be university graduates more than 30 years old, and they must have had experience in guidance, counselling, or personnel work. Interested persons are asked to call at, or write to, the recruiting office at H.M.C.S. "Nonsuch".

Sgt. James Arthur Bancroft, New Westminster, named a member of the Order of the British Empire two years ago, is being posted to the Northwest Air Command, Edmonton, it was announced Thursday. He was N.C.O. in charge of the transport section of No. 4 Air Training Command, R.C.A.F. for more than a year and will hold a similar position in his new post. He enlisted in the air force in 1940 after training at a mechanical school at Vancouver.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION
Do you think an outlet from the Alaska Highway to the west coast through British Columbia is necessary?

THE ANSWERS
J. STYME, caretaker: I think that is one of the things we do need. The farmers in the north would then have a more ready outlet than they have and if we want the country to progress and develop we need a more progressive method of marketing.

M. DELAINE, coal miner: From information received through our office, we understand that there are deposits of minerals in the north of British Columbia that cannot be got at unless some sort of an outlet is built. Whether it is road or rail. Naturally this would link up with the Alaska Highway. The minerals as well as the farm products from the north could be used to great advantage at this time. A speedy construction of an outlet would be advisable.

RAY SYDLE, bookkeeper: An outlet to the coast is one of the things the people from the northern part of Alberta and British Columbia have been asking for many years. Officials now have come to the conclusion that it is necessary, so whether it is essential or not it will likely be built. I think however, it is essential. It should provide a means of employment for many people after the war. Providing of course, that they don't build it at this time when labor is so scarce.

Protective Group Will Hold Meeting

Regular meeting of the Home Owners' Protective Association will be held Friday evening in the North Side Public Library, beginning at 8 p.m. A report of conferences held with Eric Gold, Ottawa assistant rentals administrator, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, will be given by officers. A. L. Marks will be in the chair.

Killed in Action

Sgt. Allan H. MacKimmie, a wireless air gunner, was killed in action June 29 on his first operational trip over France. He was the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. MacKimmie of 306 Kitchen block, and the youngest man who went through No. 3 "M" Depot to receive his wings. He attended school in Manville and Beaverlodge, and enlisted in the air force July, 1943, going overseas in April this year. His father is an employee of the Edmonton street railway, and a brother, Grant, is a carrier boy for The Edmonton Bulletin.

Canadian Corps Church Parade Planned Here

Annual church parade of the Canadian Corps Association will be held on Sunday at All Saints' cathedral at 3:15 p.m. The corps padre, the Rt. Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Anglican bishop of Edmonton, will conduct the service.

The association will fall in at the Masonic Temple at 2:30 p.m. and march along 100 avenue past the Cenotaph to the Macdonald hotel, north to Jasper avenue, west along Jasper to 103 street and then south to the church. The parade will be under command of the president, S. C. S. Kerr, K.C.

The band of the 2nd (R) Battalion, The Royal Edmonton Regiment, will lead the parade. Art. Sted, D.C.M., will be parade adjutant.

The following guests have accepted invitations to attend the parade service: His Honor Lt. Gov. J. C. Bowen, and Mrs. Bowen, Premier Ernest Manning and Mrs. Manning, Mayor John W. Fry and Mrs. Fry, Hon. J. A. MacKinnon and Mrs. MacKinnon, Maj. Gen. W. W. Foster, C.M.G., D.S.O., V.D., Air Vice-Marshal T. Lawrence, C.B., Brig-Gen. Dale V. Gaffney, U.S. A.F., Lt.-Col. J. A. Dawson, Lt.-Col. R. W. Hale, M.C., E.D., Col. W. F. Hancock, R.C.M.P., and Col. C. M. Clifford of the N.W. S.C. Wives, families and friends of the corps members are cordially invited to attend the service.

June Was Warmer, Wetter Than Usual

The June weather summary as released by the meteorological station at the airport shows the weather as being on the average "warmer and wetter than normal".

The highest temperature was about 82 degrees, the normal 85 degrees, minimum temperature was about 38 degrees, and the normal 33 degrees. The average temperature for the month was 58 degrees which is just one degree higher than normal.

The extremes in temperatures since 1894 were highest, 99 degrees in 1937; the lowest 26 in 1908. The average warmest month was 1912 and the most temperate 1902.

Rainfall for the month totalled five inches in comparison with 3.39 inches as the normal. The greatest amount of rainfall occurred in 1914 and the least in 1922.

Total hours of sunshine during June amounted to 242, whereas the normal was 246.

The wind velocity measured on the average 30 miles an hour with gusts of 47 miles.

Plan to Contest Calgary Seats

A full slate of five candidates will contest Calgary seats in the coming provincial election under the Labor Progressive party banner, it is announced by Gordon Wray, provincial campaign manager.

After addresses given by James MacPherson, provincial leader, and Lionel Edwards, provincial chairman, at a nomination convention in Calgary last night, the membership supported the proposal that the party advance its own independent program for speedy complete victory over fascism, and a guarantee of an uninterrupted flow of production to insure jobs and security in the postwar years through contesting at least 35 seats.

The mechanism of the heart is so remarkable that scientists have been unable to solve the mystery of what regulates its beat.

Pay Increases Recommended For Firemen

The finance committee of city council at a meeting held Wednesday, decided to recommend to the parent body that salary increases be granted to city firemen with first-year men receiving $138.50 monthly; first-class firemen, $168, and captains $188. Other ranks in the department will receive increases in proportion to those granted the classifications specified.

Motion that the increases be granted was made by Ald. A. Bisset. Supporting the motion were Aldermen F. J. Mitchell and Bowcott. Mayor Fry also supported the increases. Ald. J. H. Ogilvie, who moved an amendment to the Bisset motion, voted against the motion.

FAVORS BOARD

His amendment called for reaffirmation of the offer made by city council to the firemen, and failing their acceptance that council proceed to implement the request made by the union members for an arbitration board.

He said that to grant increases greater than those previously offered by council as that body's final offer would be breaking faith with the other civic unions.

Ald. Bisset said there was no breaking of faith. The other unions had come to an agreement as to wage increases through negotiation and were satisfied to accept the wage compromise arrived at.

John Pollock, secretary of the Federation of Civic Employees, intimated that at a meeting of the federation held earlier this week that it had been agreed upon unanimously by the unions that no general wage demand would be made by these unions as a result of any settlement made with the firemen.

Ald. Bisset pointed out that when the other unions accepted the wage compromises they did so with the full knowledge that the members of the firemen's union were asking for a board of arbitration.

Members of the Provincial Board of Industrial Relations were present at the meeting, and Clayton Adams, industrial relations officer, stated Thursday that he expected the offer made by the city and the wage increase the firemen would be prepared to accept was so slight that it would appear to be a ploy to invoke an arbitration board. He urged settlement of the dispute by meeting the average of wages paid these classifications throughout the province.

One in Ten Ride Bicycles in City

One in every 10 persons in Edmonton has now turned to the bicycle as his mode of transportation, according to figures released Thursday by the license department.

During the period Jan. 1 to June 30 of this year Edmontonians took out 10,187 bicycle licenses compared with 8,408 for the same period last year, an increase of 1,779. Roy Foster, license inspector, stated Thursday that he expected that the record achieved in 1942 would be beaten.

Revenue from the department during the first six months of this year amounted to $73,332.90 compared with $67,347.75, an increase of $5,985.15.

General licenses issued in the 1944 six month period amounted to 2,872 compared with 2,390, and the number of dog tags, 4,457 against 4,351 for the same period last year.

Refunding Cheques Mailed by the City

Civic officials Thursday completed the task of mailing 1,729 cheques refunding approximately $24,000 of over payments on the first instalment of land taxes made in January, and these are now in the mail to property owners. It was announced Thursday by Thomas Walker, city assessor.

He said that the cheques ranged from one dollar to a high of $2,593 repaid to the Hudson's Bay Company. The refund to the company resulted through the sale of property subsequently to the payments of the taxes last January.

Warn Motorists Drive With Care

A warning to all motorists was issued Wednesday by Sgt. Robert Hughes, city traffic department, calling attention to the urgent need for care in driving in the city generally, and on narrow streets particularly.

"Motorists must use extreme care when driving through narrow boulevard streets where children are playing and where autos are parked and where trees obstruct the views of motorists. Speeds must be reduced, and close watch kept for children."

"Extra precautions should be taken, now that school holidays are coming, when more and more children will be playing on the streets. Parents, too, should take care that their young children do not get on the streets," said Sgt. Hughes.

He was the guest of honor at a dinner given by past presidents and directors of the Kiwanis Club at the Macdonald hotel on Wednesday night.

Provost Child Is Now "All Right"

Condition of five-year-old Darcy Rosekey, Provost child who contracted anthrax early this week, is "perfectly all right" as far as is known by provincial health officials in Edmonton.

Dr. A. Somerville, director of communicable diseases for the department of health, said Thursday he did not expect to hear anything more about the case, as reports received Wednesday indicated complete recovery.

Both penicillin, medicine's newest "wonder drug," and anthrax serum were flown in Provost by R.C.A.F. officers stationed in Edmonton. The serum was flown from New York in response to an urgent request from medical authorities working on the case.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Too Much Love Makes Life Unlivable, Wan

Husband Finds Best Relief From Surplus of Kisses Is Job on the Road; Wife Suffers From Too Much Such Sentimentalism

Dear Miss Dix: I am a man 21 years old. Have been married two years and am bored to death with marriage. My wife is a good woman and I am not a philandering husband. Neither am I interested in anyone else, but I feel that I can't stand my wife any longer because she is so possessive that I do not own my own soul. I cannot leave the house without her tagging me if it is possible for her to go alone.

When we are at home together she insists on loving me constantly and wants to be kissed every minute. My every move must be accounted for, from the time I leave the office until I arrive home, or she starts a fuss and pouts and accuses me of being out with other women.

My attempts to carry on have worn me out. I have tried to get away from it by enlisting in the army, but I was not physically fit and was discharged. Please give me some advice.

WORRIED.
Answer: There is no possible way of shaking a possessive wife because she clings closer than a mustard plaster and is twice as irritating. The only suggestion that I can make that might relieve the situation to a certain extent would be for you to get a job that would take you away from home most of the time. Being a traveling salesman or a traveling waiter would be ideal. But even at that she would probably dog your footsteps.

Cases like that are not uncommon, and perhaps there are no men who are greater martyrs than the ones who are prisoners of love and who are stuffed on caresses and sufficed with kisses until their very stomachs turn against their too adoring wives.

It is a strange thing that a woman has never found out that when she has to ask a man if he loves her, he doesn't, and that when she has to beg him to kiss her, he feels like biting her instead, and that the more she follows him around, the more he sprints away from her.

HATES STUDY

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am 18 years old and worried about going to college. I have the money to go on, but I cannot seem to put my mind to studying. I have even to look at a book because of high school.

N. D. O. M.
Answer: Well, if you are that allergic to education, I would certainly advise you not to waste any time and money on going to college, because you would get nothing out of it but a college yell, bad habits and a superiority complex that would make you unwilling to do the manual labor that would be the only thing you are fitted to do.

But don't feel that your not going to college is an invitation to loaf. If you are not going to use your brains, get busy with your hands and make yourself skillful in something that you like to do. But don't forget that when you throw away a chance at an education, you discard the best tool you can ever have.

MAKES PLEA

Dear Miss Dix: Every night when I kneel down to say my prayers I make this plea to my divorced parents:

Dad! Mom! Where are you? I want you and need you so very much. To whom can I turn for guidance and protection when I have no home and no father and no mother? Who but a loving parent can soothe my troubled heart and lead me down the straight and narrow road? Surely you must care a little of what becomes of me. Oh, Mother, if you only knew how much I yearn for your arms about me. Oh, Father, if you only knew what I would give to have your wisdom and your strength to lean on, you would never have left me. My heart is heavy because I am alone in the world.

IF YOU ONLY KNEW!
Answer: Let us hope that this pathetic prayer will reach the hearts of many a man and woman who are about to sacrifice their children to their own passions and pleasures, and that it will keep them from adding the helpless little creatures they brought into the world to the multitude of boys and girls who are the pitiful victims of every divorce.

mixed pair event with Mrs. Leon Landauer.
Gerst's opening bid on today's hand was based on his length in spades and strength in the other major. His partner turned up with three aces and a fine hand, and the slam was reached without difficulty.

Dummy's ace won the first trick and the problem was the disposal of the losing hearts. Lieutenant Gerst solved it in this fashion. The ace of hearts was laid down and a low heart led from dummy. East discarded, Gerst won with the king and led another heart, ruffing with dummy's ten of spades. East overruffed with the king and returned a club. South ruffed, then drew trumps, discarding his last heart on the king of diamonds.

Allowing an older child to gain satisfaction by being overly unselfish and a younger one to assume others will always do for her, may poorly prepare both of them for future living.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

NEW TEETH INSTALLED WITHOUT WAITING

Let me tell you that what you said about immediate dentures is absolutely true (writes a reader). Six years ago most of my remaining teeth were extracted under anesthesia. But previously my dentist had made impressions and prepared the dentures I would need. These were installed in my mouth when I awoke—the nurse brought a mirror and when I looked I was disappointed, for I thought they had not extracted any teeth after all. I wore the new pieces home that same day, and they fitted so well that I could not remove them for cleansing until three days later when I visited the dentist and he showed me how. I have never had any trouble or even enough discomfort to prevent me from wearing the dentures constantly ever since. And my digestion and health were never so good as during these past five years. So I know you are right about immediate dentures; in fact, if that's what this is called, for I was there! Don't let any old fogey dentists anywhere cramp your style.

(W. T. H.)
Immediate denture service is the name dentists give such service—preparation of the denture in advance, so that it will be a perfect replica of the patient's original teeth, gums, etc., an installation of the denture immediately after extraction of tooth or teeth, before the patient leaves the office.

Denture means a set of artificial teeth, from a partial denture (two or more teeth) to a full denture (all the teeth in upper or lower jaw).

The immediate denture is not always so nearly ideal as the reader's proved. In most cases some further care and adjustments or even remodelling are required, but in a good many instances patients can and do wear their new teeth without serious discomfort from the hour after extraction.

Wearing plates immediately controls the healing process and favors formation of normal or natural gum or other supports for the plates or dentures. Wearing the new teeth constantly, instead of imposing disuse upon the mouth, teeth, gums, jaws, mucous membrane, glands, muscles, face, tongue for weeks or months, favors maintenance of good digestion (salivary digestion occurs not only in the mouth but continues, in the healthy person, for half an hour or more after starchy food has entered the stomach); good nutrition, vitality, efficiency and good looks, if any.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

"Come in now, Vera, and pick up your room. Remember, you promised mother you'd do that every day!"

Vera remembers. But what a moment to remind her! Her grocery store is all set up and she is about to do business. The injustice of it brings a flood of tears.

"How do other mothers get their children to help them?" Mother asks the world at large. Then resignedly she goes about attacking Vera's untidy room herself.

A mother gets help from her children by allowing even the slightest to have a hand in the daily chores. As they grow she adds to their responsibilities and tries, within reason, not to bring up the subject of home tasks when the child's interest and attention are focused elsewhere.

She allows them a choice of tasks so that no one child is forever saddled with dish-washing or bed-making or dusting. Each week the tasks are switched so that Eleanor can, at times, bake cookies, which task she adores, and someone else washes the dishes. Maybe mother—who knows.

Also, she puts the tasks neatly on a slip of paper and hangs it in a conspicuous spot so that no one can say, "I forgot I had to wash dishes this week. I thought it was Johnny."

That impersonal slip of paper is a better reminder than mother's voice, which is bound to take on a querulous note when she discovers the tasks assigned have not yet been accomplished.

Likewise, knowing her own children, she knows whether Martha works best when she has all the responsibility and no help and whether Bettina needs company and an occasional lift in order to get her chores done.

Thus keeping the home tasks

Fewer Persons Killed in Auto Mishaps in 1942

OTTAWA, July 6.—(CP)—"Very considerable" reduction in the number of deaths in motor vehicle accidents was recorded in Canada in 1942, with 1,409 persons killed, compared with 1,852 in 1941 and 1,723 in 1940, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

The death rate, at 12.1 per 100 population, was the lowest since 1935 and compared with 16.1 in 1941 and 15.2 in 1940.

All provinces except Saskatchewan and British Columbia showed decreases in the number of deaths from motor vehicle accidents in 1942.

Say 80,000 Persons Executed in Minsk

LONDON, July 6.—(CP)—Reuters news agency said yesterday in a dispatch from Moscow that 80,000 persons were executed by the Germans in the Russian city of Minsk. In many White Russian villages, the dispatch said, there are few children to be seen between the ages of eight and 15. They mostly have been taken by the Germans to be drained of their blood for German army blood banks, said Reuters.

Britain Is Doing Utmost For Jews

LONDON, July 6.—(CP)—Britain is doing all she can about persecution of Jews in Europe but there are no signs that Germany and Hungary are relenting and "the principal hope of terminating this tragic state of affairs must remain a speedy victory of the Allied nations," Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons yesterday.

Price-Erwin Wedding Held

FORT COVINGTON, New York, July 6.—In St. Paul's Episcopal church, at noon on June 10, the marriage took place of Gwendolyn Geraldine Erwin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Erwin of Fort Covington, to Petty Officer Thomas Price, R.C.N.V.R., only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Price, South Edmonton.

It was a double ring ceremony with the Rev. Carlos Aveline of Trinity church, Whitehall, New York, officiating, followed by a celebration of Holy Communion by the young couple. Pastel shaded peonies and bouquets of orange blossoms formed a setting for the ceremony.

Wearing a gown of white silk jersey made princess style, the bride was given away by her father. The full gown skirt terminated in a slight train beyond which extended her veil of English net edged in lace falling from a tiara of seed pearls.

She carried a white prayer book showered with white rosebuds tied with streamers of orange blossoms and white sweetpeas.

Mrs. Robert W. Hook, of Edgemoor, N.Y., was matron-of-honor and Miss Peggie Price, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Janet Smith and Martha Gorman of Fort Covington were flower girl and ring bearer.

Earl Ashley, of Fort Covington, was best man and ushers were Cadet William Schramm, of Pennsylvania Military College, and Edward Tallion.

The wedding reception was held to immediate members of the family and close friends.

Later Petty Officer and Mrs. Price left on a wedding trip through the New England States. Mrs. Price chose a Redwood brown and white silk jersey suit with topcoat of London tan, white accessories and white rosebud corsage as her going away costume.

The bride-table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and decorated with pink and white snapdragons, the whole being lighted with tall ivory tapers. Lt. W. Loser proposed the toast to the bride.

Later the couple left for honeymoon at Banff, the bride traveling in a navy ensemble. Upon their return Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Manz will take up temporary residence in the city.

Business Women Talk of Plans Post-War Work

WINNIPEG, July 6.—(C.P.) Plans for a program to care for post-war employment for women drew the attention of delegates at the ninth convention of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women here Wednesday.

"This is the time for women to organize, to decide what they want in the post-war period, and to make their voices heard," Dr. Minnie L. Moffett of Dallas, Tex., president of the American F.B.P.W., told the delegates.

She said women must study the science of government and obtain the kind of legislation they want.

Charge Driver After Accident In City Street

Two-year-old Gail Edmunds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edmunds, 1417 95A street, was in Royal Alexandra hospital Wednesday afternoon, suffering from head injuries received after being struck by a taxi, according to city police.

The little girl was injured shortly after 2:00 p.m., and was taken to the hospital by her parents.

Driver of the taxi, Reinhold A. Friebe, Hub hotel, was placed under arrest by city police and charged with dangerous driving.

Friebe, who appeared before Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C., in city police court Thursday morning, pleaded not guilty to the charge, and had the case adjourned to July 13. Bail was set at $1,000.

According to officers, Friebe said he was watching for an address on the east side of the street, where he expected to pick up a passenger, as he drove slowly along.

Friebe, who appeared before Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C., in city police court Thursday morning, pleaded not guilty to the charge, and had the case adjourned to July 13. Bail was set at $1,000.

According to officers, Friebe said he was watching for an address on the east side of the street, where he expected to pick up a passenger, as he drove slowly along.

Before the Magistrate

Pleading guilty before Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C. Wednesday afternoon to selling a truck at a price higher than the maximum, Walter Schnee, Gwynne, was fined $30 or 40 days imprisonment. Louis Hamulas, Edmonton, who sold the vehicle for Schnee, also was penalized to the extent of $20 or 25 days.

Ceiling price of the truck, the court was told, was $1,682.41; the selling price was $2,300. Schnee now had to refund the difference in two sums and Hamulas, an salesman, got no commission out of the sale, it was stated.

H. G. Hartley paced between 100 and 103 streets by a traffic officer at 40 miles an hour, pleaded guilty to driving at an unreasonable speed and was fined $20 or 15 days.

Philip Smith, who had been in hospital since a Dominion Day, pleaded guilty to intoxication and was assessed $20 or 30 days. Philip "ran into a flat," and then used his own, but he didn't possess sufficient means to take care of himself. "You still have a shiner," observed Mr. Howe.

Gordon E. Cummings, Edmonton, pleading guilty to offering for sale 1942 sedan at a price higher than the maximum, and was fined $25 or 30 days.

While the ceiling price on that particular auto was set at $1,170, it was offered for $1,730, it was stated.

Tom and Mary Duda, joint-owners of a shop, were fined $15 or 20 days after pleading guilty to having loose coupons in their possession, which coupons had been removed from ration books prior to the valid date. The accused told an investigator that they had taken the coupons from customers who did not have sufficient coupons to cover their purchases. Sixteen coupons were accepted by the accused, and covered various rationed goods, the court was told.

Mike Hynd, through counsel, pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle when he was without the certificate of registration, and was fined $10 or 15 days.

The accused had two cars, one of which he was going to sell. While trying to make up his mind, he secured only one sticker.

Charles Orton, Edmonton, was committed for trial by Magistrate Harold L. Howe, K.C. Thursday morning, on a charge of gross indecency.

Three witnesses were heard, hotel clerk, a police officer, and a 29-year-old youth. The last mentioned told of receiving a phone call to go to a hotel, at which time he "hook it" that the accused was a friend of his family in Vancouver. In the hotel room of the accused, the alleged act took place.

Cpl. J. W. Stanton, a police officer, told of searching the room and finding numerous addresses and letters there. The accused returned to the room about the time the investigators finished their search. Defence evidence was reserved.

City Business Man Is Will Hold Inquest Honored at Banquet Saturday Afternoon

Recognition of 25 years of service as manager of L. K. Liggett Co. Ltd., stores here was paid to C. F. Cummer at a banquet held Wednesday night at the Macdonald hotel. E. H. Waldruff, Toronto, president and general manager of the company, presented him with a silver tray on behalf of the organization.

Also in Edmonton with Mr. Waldruff is C. E. Helmer, who is conducting a "job instruction training school," sessions of which will be held at the Macdonald hotel on Thursday.

The inquest opened Wednesday morning with identification of the body at Harold's funeral home. Members of the jury are Francis LeGassick, George Haggall, J. W. Parks, R. J. Talbot, E. W. Armstrong and Francis Taylor.

Ottawa, and has had experience as a teacher and as a life insurance salesman, and this background, added to an active interest in several branches of sport, and skill in a variety of handicrafts, fitted her for her present post. Although the presence of a lady supervisor will provide C.W.A.C. personnel with an auxiliary services consultant who can give some special attention to their problems, Mrs. Landeen will carry out all duties assigned to the auxiliary service representatives.

Mrs. Landeen's husband, Pte. H. E. Landeen, is now serving overseas with the R.C.O.C.

Mr. George Douglas continues as chief supervisor at A20, C.A.S.C. (T.C.), with George Lonsdale as his senior assistant.

Appoint Woman Red Deer Post

Mrs. Willa E. Landeen, formerly of Regina, Sask., and Orillia, Ont., has been transferred to A20 Canadian Army Service Corps Training Centre, Red Deer, as Y.M.C.A. War Services supervisor.

The first woman supervisor to be appointed in Western Canada, Mrs. Landeen joined the Auxiliary Services in February, 1944, and was stationed at Regina, Sask., as a supervisor before going to Red Deer. She was for some time senior reviewer for the dependents' allowance board at Regina.

McCoy Health Service

The average case of nephritis if treated early enough, will readily yield to the fasting method of cure and improvement may often be secured in a fairly short time. It is, of course, possible that the disease has produced structural changes in the kidneys which can not be entirely overcome but such cases are not frequent and the patient is willing to follow strict habits of life a complete cure will be secured in the average case.

If you have Bright's Disease, what you want to know is: "What can I do to get well?" I know that if you were sitting right here beside my desk, you would ask this very question. Therefore, I am going to give you the treatment I have found the best in overcoming this kind of chronic kidney trouble.

At the start of the treatment you are to take a fast for from 5 to 7 days. Use an eight ounce glass of either tomato juice or orange juice every two hours, and continue through the entire day whatever juice you begin with in the morning. It is all right, however, to use the orange juice for two or three days and then to switch to the tomato juice. Be sure that the tomato juice is also used each day. An abundance of water is to be taken during the day, using the distilled water, if possible. In most cases, I do not find it necessary to limit the water used, and even two or three gallons may be used per day. This will assist in flushing out wastes.

In most cases, this treatment will be satisfactory and at the end of the seven day fast, you should have a urinalysis test made. If this shows a decided improvement, the fast may be broken with a non-starchy, non-protein diet to be taken for 4 days. Using the following diet: Three times a day you are to make a meal of soup prepared by grinding together in the food grinder the following foods: spinach, small carrots, celery and parsley. Cook to-

11-Year-Old Boy Is Held by Police

An 11-year-old boy, well-known to police, was in custody for the second time Wednesday, when he was apprehended in a rooming house. Just two weeks before, he landed in the hands of the law for a similar offence. This time, he was not permitted to go free, but was taken to the South Side station. The lad was discovered, police said, in the room of William Enkie, Condoni Block, about 8:35 p.m., when the latter returned to it after a brief absence. Upon unlocking the door, he found the boy in his room.

The boy, upon questioning, said he had entered the room by means of the fire-escape window. He had not been there long enough, however, to get anything. He also stated that he had entered another home at 98 avenue and 112 street, where he obtained 75 cents in currency, that same evening.
